First Aid a Valuable Red Cross Service

First aid is one of the major services of the Red Cross and has been a part of the program of the Marion county chapter for many years. In the above picture are shown Girl Scout leaders in class, demonstrating the various types of bandaging. They are left to right, standing, Mrs. Harold Fetter, Mrs. Milton Giles, Mrs. D. B. Miller; seated, Mrs. O. N. Reece, Mrs. Smith Neville, Mrs. W. F. Mochel.

* * *

This is one of a series of stories telling about some of the services of the Marion county chapter of the American Red Cross. The series is published to aid in Marion county's part in the annual fund campaign. Sixty-five per cent of the contribution will remain in Marion county to carry on the chapter's work.

* * *

The national picture of Red Cross First Aid would show the story of how millions of Americans were taught how to stop the flow of blood, how to bring back the breath of life, how to avoid accidents common in everyday experience. It would also show a vast network of highway first aid stations and fleets of mobile first aid units.

In the Marion County chapter, first aid has long been an active service of the chapter, but became more active during World War II. During the wartime period the following certificates were issued for completion of the respective courses Junior 187, Standard 2,011 and Advanced 321.

Robert Solinger is serving as chairman of First Aid in the Marion County chapter and has organized an active First Aid committee. At the present time the chapter has 15 instructors who are qualified to organize and instruct First Aid classes. Last year 13 Girl Scouts and nine students at Thomas A Edison Junior High school completed the Junior First Aid course and received certificates, and 20 persons completed the Standard First Aid course in classes conducted at Waldo and Meeker.

The chapter sponsors a Highway First Aid Station at Waldo where two persons are trained and qualified to give First Aid in an emergency.

OFFICE OPENED BY RED CROSS

Drive Headquarters Begin To Function at 193 East Center Street.

With the advanced gifts and industrial committees well into their soliciting campaign, and headquarters for information and supplies opening today at 193 East Center street, the stage is being set for the annual Red Cross financial campaign which will be launched in Marion city and county and throughout the nation next Sturday.

In keeping with this year's plans the advanced gifts and industrial committees began their solicitations last week in an effort to have this part of the campaign completed before the opening of the general campaign. Marion county's quota of the $60,000,000 national goal is $27,060. "Give Where You Live," is the slogan for the county drive.

Mrs. M. C Murphy, chairman of staff assistants corps is in charge of the headquarters located in the Red Cross production room, and is being assisted by Mrs. John Duran assistant chairman. They will be assisted by the volunteer special service group.

Girl scouts are assisting in preparing the supplies and residents of the city and county will be made Red Cross-minded this week through the receipt of pamphlets enclosed in out-going mail of local utilities and placed in grocery bags at the various chain stores. Posters will be placed in the downtown business places by the Girl Scouts this week.

Workers in the residential section will meet at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the headquarters to receive supplies and instruction.

Otis Porter is chairman of the advanced gifts solicitation and is being assisted by a committee. Kenneth Fields, chairman of the industrial campaign, is being assisted by Robert Williams, vice chairman, and a committee composed of Walter Grumblat, George Stafford, L. H. Larsen and Jack Danner.

In the county the workers are headed by Arthur H. Smith, assisted by Mrs. Floyd Topliff of LaRue and Elmer L. Weimer of Marion as vice chairmen.

HOG PRICES $28.25 FOR NEW RECORD

180 to 250 Pound Class Up $1.25 Over Saturday.

Hog prices soared to a new all-time high at the Marion Union Stockyards auction today, climbing approximately $1.25 above Saturday's prices. Hogs in the 180 to 250 pound class were selling for $28.25, with corresponding increases in other classifications.

Heavier hogs, those in the 275 to 300 pound bracket, were selling for $27.75, stockyards officials said. They estimated between 500 and 600 head would be sold during the day's auction. Most of them will be shipped to eastern markets.

Today's top hog prices were the highest on record at the local stockyards. They have shown a gradual increase for the last two weeks when they topped previous highs set after OPA restrictions were lifted last fall.

Scarcity of hogs on both local and midwestern markets is largely responsible for the high prices, livestock officials believe. Majority of the hogs being sold on the open market today were from fall litters.

Other livestock prices showed little change today. The lamb market at noon appeared to be slow above that of last week with prices on cattle and calves not reported steady.

Truman Asks U. S. To Join Mass Refugee Organization

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 — President Truman today asked congress to authorize the United States to participate in an international refugee organization.

Mr. Truman said in a message there are more than 1,000,000 displaced persons still in Germany, Austria, and Italy, and told congress:

"Almost two-thirds of these are under United States care and control. The Allied military victory over the Axis powers brought with it a practical and moral responsibility with reference to victims of the Axis."

Mr. Truman recalled that the general assembly of the United Nations agreed that (1) the problem of displaced persons was international in scope, (2) every effort should be made to facilitate the repatriation of displaced persons desiring to return to their homes and (3) those with valid objections to returning home should be cared for by an international agency until new homes are found for them.

The UN economic and social council, the President said, recommended establishment of the organization and submitted the draft of a proposed constitution. Warren Austin, United States UN representative, signed the constitution subject to approval by congress.

In requesting this approval, Mr Truman said it was of the "utmost importance" that the organization be established as soon as possible. He added:

"It would indeed be serious if it were not in a position to begin operations on July 1 of this year.

"It is not unreasonable that many of the other potential members of the international refugee organization should watch closely the attitude of the United States before making their own definite commitments. I feel sure that with the firm and prompt leadership of the United States, this organization will be in a position to function as an international body to perform an essential international service."

Mr. Truman said the refugee organization will have no governmental power and no effect on the laws of its members. Its funds would be obtained by appropriations of participating nations.

"It will be solely a service organization to aid in the solution of a common problem," the President said.

Auditor Claims State Of Ohio Tax Delinquent

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 24—The state of Ohio is tax delinquent, according to Franklin County Auditor Fred C. Dunn.

He says it owes real estate taxes on the state house and other public buildings here totaling $120,000.

Dunn published the state as a tax delinquent along with a lot of little delinquents Saturday.

"If the tax delinquents of all the little citizens are to be held up to public glare, then the state government should be subjected to the same treatment," Dunn said.

Whether the state legislature now in session will do anything about it remained to be seen. The assembly was in recess over the weekend.

Top Teachers' Strike Begins

Buffalo Schools Close as 2,000 Stage Biggest Walkout in U. S. History.

By The Associated Press

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 24—All but 20 of Buffalo's 98 public schools were closed today as more than 2,000 teachers seeking pay boosts staged the largest teacher strike in U. S. history.

Approximately 60,000 of the city's 71,000 pupils took a forced holiday. Only about one-third of a total of 2,960 teachers remained on duty.

Confusion reigned as teachers attempted to organize classes at LaFayette High school, one of two high schools kept open. Hundreds of students milled through the corridors, while only a few reported for the first classes.

Some Strikers On Hand

Officials said some teachers from the closed schools were on hand to aid LaFayette's normal complement of 58.

The strikers were warned by their leader to "carry on with the dignity that has always been associated with our profession."

Biggest previous teacher strike was that of 1,160 in St. Paul, Minn., last fall, closing 77 schools and affecting 30,000 pupils.

The strikers are members of the Buffalo Teachers Federation (independent) which seeks minimum annual pay ranging from $2,400 to $4,000 and immediate $1,025 annual raises.

Current Buffalo scales provide a $1,875-$2,575 range for elementary teachers and 2,175-2,975 for secondary teachers, plus a $300 temporary raise voted by the state legislature.

No Word from Dewey

The teachers had received no word from Governor Thomas E. Dewey's special committee on education which is expected to recommend a plan for permanent pay increases to the legislature Wednesday.

Republican legislative leaders in Albany indicated, however, that a bill to deny pay increases for three years to any striking public employe and return him to the lowest salary for his position would be reported out by the senate labor committee tonight for probable senate passage Wednesday.

Buffalo Federation President Raymond J. Ast told teachers who are schedulel to be on observation duty at the 20 open schools:

"I know you will insist upon good order and discipline and that you will do your best to carry on with the dignity that has always been associated with our profession."

SENATOR SAYS IT'S ECONOMY NOW OR NEVER

Ferguson Tells Solons Waste Must Be Eliminated at This Session.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24—Senator Ferguson (R-Mich), declared today that if congress doesn't cut out "shameless duplication, overlapping of functions and waste of taxpayers' money" now it will never do it.

In an address prepared for resumption of senate debate at noon on a proposal to pledge a $6,000,000,000 cut in President Truman's $37,500,000,000 budget, the Michigan senator said it now costs the American people "more to be governed than it does it eat."

That, Ferguson asserted, is one reason he is supporting the house-approved economy promise instead of a $4,500,000,000 reduction pledge offered by Senator Millikin (R-Colo).

Besides Ferguson, Senators Barkley of Kentucky, the Democratic leader, Hatch (D-NM), Langer (R-ND), and others were listed on a long speaking schedule that threatened to postpone a final vote until Wednesday, when the senate meets again.

Barkley has told friends he will support the $4,500,000,000 proposal. Hatch already has given notice that he dislikes the promise to cut $4,500,000,000 but will accept it as "lesser evil." He has called the $6,000,000,000 slash proposal a "headlong plunge into disaster."

"Wouldn't Hamper Army"

Advocates of the Millikin proposal have contended it would leave the army and navy relatively free from reductions in their aggregate $11,200,000,000 allotment. They say indications point to a maximum slash of $750,000,000 for the two services if defenders can hold the line at that point.

From Tokyo, General MacArthur wrote the war department that he is confident congress will not "take any action which would prejudice fulfillment of occupation objectives."

While lauding any economies "which our national interest reasonably may permit," MacArthur cautioned that cutting off American relief would make starving Japanese "easy prey to any ideology, however evil," which offered food.

The occupation commander made no reference to the six billion vs. four billion reduction fight, but the war department—which had asked for his views for submission to congress—made public the 1,500-word letter here as well as in Japan.

Farm state senators already have served notice they will fight to keep agriculture appropriations intact, and Ferguson told a reporter he expects every other government agency to make a fight for its full quota.

"Neither Fish Nor Fowl"

Bue he declared in his prepared address that he believes there is a "growing realization among our citizens that the President's $37,500,000,000 budget is neither fish nor fowl—neither a peacetime, transition nor wartime budget."

"Justification for some of its billions appears to be based on the possibility of immediate war," he said. "Other billions are proposed on a 'now-the-war-is-over-we-must-catch-up' kind of reasoning. Still other billions are excused on what seems to be little more foundation that that 'we have the money—let's spend it.'"

The senate banking committee scheduled a closed-door hearing on rent controls, with Maj Gen Philip Fleming, director of the office of temporary controls, as a witness.

The senate atomic committee continued hearings on President Truman's nomination of David E. Lilienthal to head the atomic control commission with indications it would come to a decision before Saturday. The full senate then will have to act.

The house labor committee pressed ahead with its hearings on strike control measures by inviting representatives of the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Company to relate its experiences with labor strife.

Von Papen Sentenced To 8 Years in Prison

Strengthened Strike Mediation Requested

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24—The committee for economic development, outlining its formula for industrial peace, today proposed a compulsory 10-day period of mediation before any strike, lockout or strike vote.

The planning organization said congress should provide a "greatly strengthened" federal mediation service along with such a law and should require too that all strikes be approved by a majority of union members voting in secret, supervised elections.

The committee's statement on "collective bargaining: how to make it work," was released by Paul G. Hoffman, president of the Studebaker Corporation, and Eric Johnston, president of the Motion Picture Association of America.

Hoffman is chairman of CED and Johnston headed the special committee which drafted the report. CED is made up mainly of business men and educators. Although its trustees include some government officials such as Under Secretary of State Will Clayton and Under Secretary of Commerce William C Foster.

Jurisdictional Remedy Suggested

The report also suggested a remedy for jurisdictional strikes, a ban on secondary boycotts and "equalization" of the rights of management and unions under the Wagner act. Bills covering these points already are pending in congress.

In addition, the planning group proposed a permanent national labor-management council to advise the government on industrial relations.

"CED recommendations are based on the premise that the general public has a vested interest in industrial peace, that labor disputes are no longer the sole concern of management and labor, and that in consequence the general public through government has an obvious right to impose rules upon both management and labor which will promote peaceful bargaining," the report said.

"Ground Rules"

It suggested these "ground rules" for collective bargaining:

1. That the present U. S. conciliation service be transformed into a national mediation service with "new status, new functions new dignity" and more money.

The service should be within the labor department for "housekeeping" purposes but independent in policy. Its functions would be to foster local mediation, furnish mediators where needed, encourage voluntary arbitration and maintain a "panel of competent arbitrators."

2. That the Wagner act be amended to exclude supervisors from "employe" status, to require unions as well as employers to bargain, and to afford "freedom to speak" to industry as well as labor.

3. That all contracts provide compulsory arbitration, or some other peaceable means of settlement, for disputes arising under the contract. This would not apply to the negotiation of new contracts or renewals.

4. That jurisdictional disputes be referred for settlement to a referee chosen by the national labor relations board, if the unions cannot reach agreement among themselves.

5. That the strike vote procedure—as well as the referee's decision in inter-union squabbles—be enforceable by injunction suits in the federal courts. This would require amendment of the Norris-LaGuardia anti-injunction act and the Wagner act.

6. That forceful picketing—that which bars entrance to or exit from a plant—be outlawed, along with secondary boycotts under which, CED said, "a union may set up a wall around a city of millions of citizens shutting out particular goods."

Asks "Super Boards"

In the field of major "public interest" industries like transportation and utilities, CED concluded that proposed legislation calling for "super-boards," compulsory arbitration, government seizure or other coercive devices will retard, not advance, the development of collective bargaining and to that extent will jeopardize the maintenance of a free economy."

While asserting that "there may be crises which call for action of extraordinary nature," the report said CED "sees no value in attempting to formulate measures for meeting crises the character of which cannot be anticipated.

"Rather, it reaffirms its belief in the necessity for making free collective bargaining work so well that crises will be avoided."

The proposal that mediation precede any strike or strike vote is based, the CED said, on experience which shows that "mediation is more effective if it is used before a shutdown occurs rather than afterward.

The proposal "differs markedly," the report said, from cooling-off periods, strike notice require-

GAS SUPPLIES GROW SHORTER

Marion Situation Unchanged But Other Areas of State Are Hard Hit.

Sub-normal temperatures in Marion and other parts of Ohio today continued to force curtailment of natural gas supply to large industrial users.

C. E Sechrist, Marion manager of the Ohio Fuel Gas Co, said there was no change in the situation here, with large industries partly on stand-by equipment.

The weatherman came up with an optimistic prediction, however, forecasting a rise in temperatures tonight and tomorrow. Snow flurries were also in store, he said.

Temperature Variations

The temperature yesterday varied between 23 and 10 degrees and a trace of snow fell. At noon today it was 14 above.

It was snowing in Cleveland, Toledo, Dayton, Findlay, Akron and other cities, The Associated Press reported. In some, among them Columbus, the snow was limited to flurries. A cold wind, however, made it uncomfortable for those who had to be outdoors any length of time.

In Toledo, a shutoff of natural gas to 125 industrial consumers began today. I W. Ludwig, district manager of the Ohio Fuel Gas Co, said the curtailment would affect employment of 8,000 persons if the ban continued through Tuesday.

Columbus Situation

An Ohio Fuel Gas Co. spokesman said interruption of service in South Columbus and to 600 customers in nearby Grove City was imminent unless consumers initiated strict conservation measures. He added pressure was "very low" today at Lima and Sidney, which are supplied by utilities getting gas from Ohio Fuel.

The East Ohio Gas Co today curtailed industrial gas for the third time this winter, cold weather forcing a cut in supplies to 300 plants in Cleveland, Akron, Canton, Niles, Youngstown and Wooster.

J. French Robinson, East Ohio president, ordered an immediate 50 per cent curtailment with an additional 25 per cent slash to take effect at noon.

CUBA TO DEPORT LUCIANO TO ITALY

By The Associated Press

HAVANA, CUBA, Feb. 24—Interior Minister Alfredo Pequeno said today Charles "Lucky" Luciano, detained at the Tiscornia immigration station since his arrest Saturday, would be sent back to Italy.

Luciano, former New York vice overlord, is held incommunicado at the Tiscornia station, Cuba's Ellis island, across Havana Bay from Havana.

Governmental offices were shut down today for Cuba's national feast day. Pequeno told a reporter of the decision to deport Luciano to Italy, whence he came to this country last October.

BUYS PRIVATE CLUB CHARTER

Witness Tells Liquor Hearing Papers Bought, Lausche's Brother Assisted.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Feb 24 — The secretary-treasurer of a private club here told a state liquor board hearing today she bought a club charter and minutes for $400 and was assisted in filing her application by Charles J. Lausche, brother of ex-Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

The witness was Mrs Dorothy Goodsmith, calling herself the secretary-treasurer of the DG club, holder of a private club liquor permit.

Under questioning by Assistant Attorney Gen Charles Schnurr, in charge of a liquor board probe of private clubs in Cleveland, she declared that:

(1) Charles Lausche helped her prepare papers changing the name of the old club, the People's Theater, Inc, after she had purchased its charter and minutes from "a man named G. A. Snyder." Lausche, a Cleveland attorney, arranged so that the name was changed to the DG club, she said.

(2) Charles Lausche also helped her file her application with the liquor board under the new name.

Posed Several Questions

Schnurr posed these questions and received these answers:

SHERK ARRAIGNMENT DELAYED AT KENTON

Bucyrus Man Won't Appear in Court Before Tuesday.

Special to The Star

KENTON, Feb 24—Earl Sherk, Bucyrus livestock buyer, held in Hardin county jail on charges of issuing a questionable check for $4,389 on Jan. 22 to the Kenton Farmers Marketing Corp. will not be arraigned before tomorrow, according to Sheriff Randall Clark of Hardin county.

Sherk was brought here Saturday afternoon by Sheriff Clark after he gave himself up Saturday morning to the sheriff of Crawford county. He had been the subject of a search by law enforcement authorities since early this month when four creditors charged him with failing to make payments on livestock and merchandise loans totaling $106,779.88.

Sheriff Clark said Sherk probably would be arraigned tomorrow before Justice of Peace Worley Smith. Willard Holland, manager of the Kenton Farmers Marketing Corp. said today his firm held questionable checks issued by Sherk, amounting to more than $14,000.

Sheriff Clark said he had received a detainer from state police at Pendleton, Ind., to hold Sherk for Indiana authorities on similar charges. Sherk's attorneys are Roy L. Roof of Kenton and Charles F. Schaber of Bucyrus.

Grace Moore Buried In Tennessee Rites

By The Associated Press

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Feb. 24—Described as one who brought much to the world through her "joyous music," the world-famed soprano Grace Moore was laid to rest in her native Tennessee yesterday.

The opera and concert star was killed in a Jan. 26 plane crash at Copenhagen, Denmark. Her body was sent here for burial beside that of her father, Col. Richard L. Moore Sr., department store executive who died two years ago.

Dorothy Kirsten, Metropolitan Opera star, paid Miss Moore a final musical tribute with a rendition of Schubert's "Ave Maria."

GERMAN COURT CONVICTS ACE NAZI DIPLOMAT

Denazification Tribunal Calls Him Instrumental in Hitler's Climb.

By The Associated Press

NUERNBERG, Feb 24—Franz Von Papen, ace of Adolf Hitler's diplomatic corps, was sentenced by a German denazification court today to serve eight years at hard labor.

Sentence was imposed by the seven-man court after it had found the former Reichs Chancellor and ambassador guilty as a "major offender" who helped Hitler to power and stayed with the Nazi regime to the end.

The court also ordered Von Papen's personal fortune confiscated.

Acquitted of War Crimes

Von Papen was acquitted of war crimes charges only last October by the international military tribunal which sentenced Hermann Goering and 10 other Nazi leaders to death following a history-making trial here.

The one-time Nazi diplomat now is 68 and has hardening of the arteries. The court's sentence was regarded as tantamount to a life term.

Von Papen's confiscated property includes centuries-old estates in both the French and British zones of Germany. Von Papen was barred from entering both zones after his acquittal at the war-crimes trial and was forced to remain in the U. S. zone.

At the denazification trial, he protested that he had been motivated by a desire not to help Hitler but to help Germany. He insisted that after the Fuehrer came to power, he like all others was helpless to intervene.

Von Papen said that he had opposed the union of Austria with Germany when he was ambassador to Austria and had worked for peace as ambassador to Turkey.

Gold Badge Damaging

The court, however, ruled that his possession of a gold Nazi party badge, however honorary, and lack of evidence of any break with Hitler were enough to justify his conviction.

The judges said that Von Papen would be given credit for time he served as a prisoner of the International military (war crimes) tribunal. This will take one year and five months off his eight years in a labor camp.

At the same time the court announced that he would be assessed 413,000 marks ($41,300) "as costs of his trial" and would be allowed to keep no more than 5,000 marks ($500).

Von Papen, ruddy-cheeked and white-maned, looked the picture of a dapper diplomat as he stood

Austrians Ask To Try Von Papen on New Count

By The Associated Press

NUERNBERG, Feb. 24 — The German court which sentenced Franz Von Papen to eight years at hard labor as a Nazi leader was advised today that the Austrian government also wanted to place the diplomat on trial for his activities as Hitler's ambassador to Vienna.

Prosecutor Werner Giebig said Dr. Josef Geroe, minister of justice in Vienna, had written him of intentions to try Von Papen in connection with Germany's absorption of Austria in 1938. Von Papen has been accused of paving the way for this anschluss.

Giebig said the minister wrote that his government "has taken steps with competent authorities" to gain custody of Von Papen. The letter, the prosecutor reported, did not elaborate.

The Allied control council in Berlin is the sole authority that could grant extradition of Von Papen to Austria. There was no immediate indication here whether it would do so.

Youthful Ohio Slayers Plead Guilty to Murder

By The Associated Press

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Feb. 24—Don Frohner and Arthur Chapman, 16-year-old slayers of William C. Spieth, 52-year-old Ashtabula machinery salesman, today pleaded guilty to a charge of first degree murder and then threw themselves upon the mercy of the court.

In order ot ascertain whether mercy is to be recommended, Judge David G. Jenkins, presiding, ruled the full evidence must be heard.

The boys are accused of murdering Spieth last Jan. 12.

LaRue Methodist Church Votes $65,000 Expansion Program

Special to The Star

LARUE, Feb. 24—Preliminary plans and drawings of the proposed building program of the LaRue Methodist church were approved by members of the church Sunday by a vote of 72 to 12. Plans were submitted to the congregation at a special meeting following the morning worship service conducted by Rev. C. A. Hutchison, pastor. Voting was limited to members 21 years of age or older.

After the building committee was asked by Rev. Hutchison to take charge of the special meeting, Howard Bailey, chairman, discussed the development of the committee's program for church improvements to meet the overcrowded conditions and to extend the church program. He introduced architects, Martin and Ward of Columbus, who recently completed the drawings and estimates. The two architects explained the proposed additions and improvements and answered questions from members before the voting.

The layout includes an educational unit with overall dimensions of 32 by 78 feet, to be annexed at the east end of the present building in addition to improvements to the present sanctuary. Plans for this educational unit call for a two-story stone structure with floor of concrete covered by asphalt tile. The first floor will include a small chapel with a seating capacity of 60, a pastor's office, junior assembly and recreation room, class room and kitchen, with rest rooms on both floors. The second floor plans feature ample class room space for the church school.

The sanctuary improvements include removal of the present small class rooms to give added space for the congregation, and removal of the pulpit to the east end from the present location on the north side. A balcony will be erected at the west end along with a mother's room which also can be used for a choir room, with stairways on both sides of the front vestibule to the balcony. The floor of the Sanctuary is to be leveled and new pews added. Seating capacity of the remodeled sanctuary will be approximately 375. Plans also call for the resurfacing of the exterior of the present edifice with stone veneer.

New Heating Plant

Concrete walks on both north and south sides of the present building will lead to entrances of the addition and the sanctuary will open into the new unit. A new central heating plant will be installed, according to the adopted plans. Parking space will be provided at the rear of the new annex.

Cost of the complete building program is estimated by the committee to total approximately $65,000 including the actual building of featured project, architectural fees and other miscellaneous expenses. After adoption of the plans Mr. Bailey explained that the building program would proceed on the pay-as-you-go policy with no debt being incurred by the church. He said construction plans would start when the total of cash, pledges and bonds reach the estimated cost of the proposed annex, which will be the first part of the project to be constructed. The new annex is estimated to cost approximately $37,000. To date the fund has reached a total of $21,300, it was reported. Serving on the building committee with Mr. Bailey are Riley Hoagland, W. E. Thew, J. S. Mulvaine, Frank Burbaugh, Leslie Adams, W. E. Selanders, M. C. Clements and Rev. W. P. LaRue. Orville Boblenz is financial secretary of the committee and Mr. Hoagland, treasurer.

Charges for carrying a ton of freight one mile vary from an average of 2,400 cents in England to less than seven-tenths of a cent in Japan, the U. S. average being .96 of a cent.

OFFERS EYE FOR HOME. Leroy Stewart, 33, a Peoria, Ill., factory worker, unable to find a home for his wife and three small children, has offered one of his eyes to anyone who will provide him with a home. World Day of Prayer was observed by the LaRue Methodist W. S. C. S. with a program Friday afternoon at the church, with Mrs. Donald Virden, president, in charge.

The program opened with a piano solo by Mrs. Albert Amstutz followed by a vocal duet by Mrs. Sheldon Kramp and Mrs. Herbert Moore. Participating in short readings were Miss Ruth Dickason, Mrs. Dana Hughes, Mrs. S. W. Fields and Mrs. D. C. Burton. A poem was given by Mrs. Virden, who also served as reader for a musical number with Mrs. Kramp and Mrs. Moore as vocalists and Mrs. Amstutz as pianist. Prayer by Rev. C. A. Hutchison closed the program.

Legion Auxiliary Holds Meeting at Prospect

Special to The Star

PROSPECT — The American Legion Auxiliary held its February meeting recently at the Township house. Two new members, Mrs. Emery Roberts and Mrs. Margaret Farrington were welcomed into the organization.

Twenty-two members were present. Mrs. Grace Jones was made delegate to the convention to be held at the Neil House in Columbus, March 1. The program was in charge of Mrs. Texie Carpenter. Mrs. Edna Griffith entertained with a vocal solo, and a reading was given by Mrs. Cora Rodefer. Mrs. W. H. Davids had charge of the contests.

Today's Text— "He stedfastly set His face to go to Jerusalem." Luke 9:51.

* * *

THE parallel account in Mark 10:32 reads: "As they went on their way up to Jerusalem, Jesus walked ahead of them and they were amazed."

On His last journey to Jerusalem, Jesus precedes His disciples. He walks alone in the fearless manner of the heroic Leader, step and gesture revealing firmness of purpose and an increasing determination to follow the course outlined for Him in prophecy. He is absorbed in the Suffering Servant of Isaiah 53 and of Psalm 22. He will give His life as a ransom for many, lay Himself on the altar of sacrificial love, die for others and seal His work with His death on the cross.

In this Lenten season our peerless Leader invites us to go up with Him to the higher levels of Christian service, with its self-denial and loving devotion to the service of others.

REV. HENRY SCHAEFFER, Ph.D.,
Pastor, St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

YOUR INCOME TAX

Who Must File a Tax Return

This is the first of 12 stories explaining who must do what about filing an income tax return.

* * *

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24—March 15 is the big income tax deadline for about 50,000,000 people.

Who must file an income tax return by that date? You must, if you had $500 or more income in 1946.

James Marlow

By you is meant man, woman, child, married or single.

Suppose you had $500 or more income in 1946 but full tax was withheld from you. Must you file a return anyway? Yes.

This is the final settlement and check-up between you and the government.

It doesn't have a thing to do with any of the tax-cutting talk now going on in congress. This March 15 settle-up date is for last year's taxes.

If you still owe any tax on 1946 income, you must pay it in full by March 15 when you file your return.

Must Show Income

Your return must show what your 1946 income was, how much tax was withheld, if any, and how much tax still is owed, if any.

If your return shows too much tax was withheld, you'll get a refund by filing a return.

If your 1946 income was less than $500, you don't have to file a return.

But if tax was withheld from that less-than-$500 income, you'll get a refund by filing.

You get a $500 exemption for each dependent. But you can't claim it for anyone with $500 or more income, even though you contributed to more than half his support.

A dependent whose income was under $500 doesn't have to file a return and you don't have to report his income in your return.

Should File for Refund

But—if your dependent had less than $500 income and tax was withheld, he should file a return so he'll get a refund.

Suppose a dependent—say a child—had $500 or more income. Who makes the return, the child or the parent? The child, in his own name.

But you'll be responsible for paying the tax, if the child doesn't.

It's different with a wife.

If she had any income at all in 1946—no matter how much under $500—you can't claim the usual $500 exemption for her unless you include her income in a joint return with yours.

When a wife's income is $500 or more, it may save a couple money if they file separate returns.

But the husband-wife problem will be explained later in this series. So will the problem of these two groups:

1. Veterans.

2. Those who, besides filing a 1946 return, also must file by March 15 an estimate on 1947 income. About one in five must do this.

Some Income Tax

But what is income? Must every kind be reported? No. Some kinds are tax-free.

Here's income which must be reported:

Wages, salaries, fees, commissions, bonuses, prizes, tips, bank interest whether withdraw or not, business profits, rents, dividends on stocks, pensions for civilian services rendered in the past, retirement pay—except for disability, which is exempt—for army and navy personnel; royalties, interest on government bonds issued after March 1, 1941.

Here's some tax-free income which doesn't have to be reported:

Disability pensions to war veterans, enlisted men's pay and the first $1,500 of officers' pay in the armed services, monthly government allowances to families of members of the armed forces, gifts and inheritances, social security benefits, damage or compensation for bodily injury and sickness, and interest on state and local government bonds.

Evangelist Speaks At LaRue School Program

Special to The Star

LARUE — Dr. John R. Rice, evangelist of the Marion Union Revival, now in progress, was speaker at the LaRue High school assembly period Friday afternoon at the school auditorium.

He was accompanied by Dr. Harry D. Clarke, song writer and Welsh baritone, who led in group singing with Mrs. Wesley Chatfield of Marion as pianist. The guests were presented by Rev. L. D. Parish, pastor of the LaRue Baptist church. Dr. Rice discussed how the universe proved the existence of God and quoted the Bible to prove the modern conception of the universe. He has been a football player and coach in addition to a college teacher and editor. The assembly was attended by the upper six grades in the school.

Marion Youth Revives Art of "Whittlin'" To Turn Out Models in Home Workshop

By ARTHUR B. MYERS

Customers who claim "the art of whittlin' isn't what it used to be" ought to take a look at the workshop of a 16-year-old Boy Scout and Harding High school junior.

He is Clinton Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Taylor of 136 Clover avenue, and he has enough intricately carved tanks, airplanes, naval pieces and other military paraphernalia to start a respectable miniature, South American revolution.

Clinton has been carving and painting on his models for the last four or five years. He gets a little help from manufacturers, since he buys the materials for his models roughly designed, but the fine carving, assembly and painting necessary before one of the surprisingly realistic models is finished is done by his own hands.

Makes Ship Models

In his workshop he has models of battlewagons, aircraft carriers, submarines, alligators and ducks and many other ship models. The last two designations are amphibious craft used by the Army—Clinton hasn't started on taxicabs yet.

All kinds of Army equipment are included in the collection. There are jeeps, tanks, trucks and various caliber artillery pieces.

At least a score of different types of airplanes are represented. Some of the models are B-17's, P-38's, jet planes, types of Navy planes, and trainers. The solid wooden models are more realistic than the flying models, but the youthful craftsman has made the latter type more true-to-life by not trying to build them to fly. He builds them for appearance, although a few additions and alterations would make them capable of flight.

A reconversion note in the collection is a streamlined diesel train.

Tools Are Simple

Tools for the hobby are a razor-sharp knife, glue, scissors, paint and brushes, transfers and a plentiful supply of patience.

Clinton is a member of Troop No. 5, sponsored by Bird-McGinnis post of the American Legion. The troop emphasizes hobbies among its members and is putting on a hobby show at the Legion Dugout March 1.

Some of Clinton's models were on exhibit in the window of a downtown business establishment during a recent competition between Scout troops for the best window display. Troop No. 5 won the contest and it's a certainty that the Clover avenue youth's contribution didn't do its chances any harm.

Six Autos Involved In Two Mishaps Here

Two accidents, each involving three cars, were reported to police Sunday.

A car driven by William Carl Smith, 39, of 138 Barnhart street collided with a parked car on East Center street between John and Dix, crossed the street, struck another parked car and then recrossed the street and hit the guy wire of a telephone pole. The second parked car was owned by Carl F. Bakenfeld of 582 East Center street. Police did not identify the owner of the first car. The accident happened Sunday at 5 a. m.

Cars driven by Chester B. Morris Jr., 27, of 524 North Prospect street and John R. Cellar, 44, of Waldo collided at South Prospect and West Columbia streets Sunday at 2:20 a. m. The Morris car was knocked into a car parked on South Prospect street, owned by Edward Cottrell of 621 East Center street.

STEEL SEES EASING OF TIGHT MARKET

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Feb. 24—Metal working operations still are handicapped by "acute shortages" of steel, but there are signs of an approaching "noticeable easing in the tight market situation," Steel magazine said today.

"Anticipating such easing, buyers are watching inventories with a sharper eye. At the same time, consumer resistance to quoted prices is developing, the so-called black market now presenting a noticeably weaker front with prices off three to five cents a pound. Also, talk is heard of a possible break in certain mill extras in the next few months. All this points to a definitely softer market situation in the making," said the trade publication.

Up one point to 94.5 per cent of rated capacity, steel's index of ingot-making reached the highest level since May, 1945.

At Pittsburgh the increase of 2.50 points raised the operating rate to 100 per cent of rated capacity. Cincinnati was up six points to 98, Wheeling three to 87.5, Cleveland two to 92 and New England two to 93. The rate remained the same in other districts.

THREE INJURED IN ACCIDENTS

Highway Patrol Reports Series of Accidents in Area Over Weekend.

Three persons suffered minor injuries in weekend traffic accidents in the Marion area, the state highway patrol reported.

Mrs. Russell M. Shedenhelm of near Upper Sandusky suffered head lacerations and bruises when the automobile in which she was riding, driven by her husband, and a car driven by Arnold E. Riedel, 17, of near Sycamore, collided Saturday at 6:45 p. m. on the Deunquat-Benton road in Crawford county approximately 12 miles northwest of Bucyrus. She was treated by a Sycamore physician. The Riedel car was traveling east and the Shedenhelm car west when the accident occurred, the patrol reported.

Miss Hazel LaRue, 18, of Galion, suffered right arm lacerations when the car in which she was a passenger and an automobile driven by Francis D Lyons of near Cardington, collided Saturday at 10 a. m. on route 61 approximately six miles north of Mt. Gilead. She was a passenger in a car driven by Lester G. Schoen, 20, of Galion and was treated by a Mt. Gilead physician. The Lyons car was traveling north and the Schoen car south when the accident occurred, the patrol stated.

Joseph Temple, 25 of near Richwood, suffered forehead lacerations in an automobile accident on a county road two miles northwest of Richwood Sunday at 2:15 p. m. He was a passenger in a car driven by John David Schmelzer of near Richwood. Highway patrolmen reported Schmelzer apparently lost control of the automobile which struck a bridge and rolled over on the highway. Temple was treated by a Richwood physician. The automobile was traveling east and was damaged considerably, patrolmen said.

Automobiles driven by Harold C. Johnson, 16, of near Marion and Richard O. Carder, 16, of 192 Windsor street, collided on route 23 one-half mile south of Marion Saturday at 11:20 p. m. Both cars were traveling north and the accident occurred according to the patrol when Johnson attempted to make a left turn.

Three motorists were arrested over the weekend for traffic violations. William Ross Neal, 21, of Morral, was arrested on route 231 Sunday at 12:45 a. m. on a charge of having insufficient lights on his automobile. He was fined $10 and costs in municipal court today.

Raymond Hoyt Pentecost, 22 of Central City, Ky., was arrested Sunday at 1 a. m. on route 23 near Waldo on charges of having no operator's license. He forfeited a $25 bond when he failed to appear in municipal court for hearing this morning.

Clarence E. Primmer, 30, of 784 Congress street, was fined $15 and costs in municipal court Monday when he pleaded guilty to charges of speeding on Davids street. He was arrested by city police at 1:09 a. m. today.

William Austin Seits of Bucyrus was arrested last Friday on a charge of speeding on route 98 north of Marion, was fined $15 and costs in municipal court Monday.

"VOICE OF AMERICA" CRIES IN WILDERNESS

By The Associated Press

MOSCOW, Feb. 24—The "Voice of America," the radio beamed to Russia by the United States state department via Munich, appeared today to be yelling itself hoarse across the windy steppes with little effect.

A number of Russians, interviewed after the first week of operation expressed these opinions:

1. Reception is very poor.

2. The programs are too high brow.

3. There is considerable amateurishness.

4. The broadcasts are dull and uninteresting at times.

5. They do not sound American.

Such Russians as have heard the program must be very few, because the broadcasts are difficult to pick up. There is a great amount of interference from other voice stations and from code transmitters. The program fades badly. Apparently the program is not beamed well because the American station at Frankfurt, Germany, is heard much better in Moscow.

Aside from the mechanical faults, it appears that not many Russians would continue listening to the program unless its contents were improved.

Epworth Circle No. 10 Meets at Titus Home

Pledge cards were distributed and plans made to assist with a dinner to be given at the church March 10, at a meeting of Circle No. 10, W. S. C. S. of Epworth Methodist church, Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Titus of 166 Spencer street. Thirty calls were reported made and seven hours of Red Cross work done during the month. Mrs. C. L. Hart was appointed flower chairman. Named as callers were Mrs. C. L. Hart, Mrs. Rose Helwig, Mrs. John Beers, Mrs. W. E. Titus, Mrs. Charles Kinney and Mrs. J. J. Keggan Jr. The date for meetings was changed from the third to the fourth Thursday of the month. Mrs. Keggan led the study hour and presented the introduction and first chapter of the study book, "Our Country Is India." Mrs. Elmer Shaw was enrolled as a new member and Mrs. J. W. Young was a guest. A meeting March 27 will be with Mrs. R. E. O'Connell of Bellefontaine avenue.

Legislation for New Fire Equipment Set Up

Legislation to authorize issuance of $15,000 in notes to finance purchase of a new piece of fire department equipment will be brought before the city council tonight according to City Solicitor Edwin B. Spohn.

The new equipment will be a 750 gallon a minute pumper, which will be capable of the triple function of pumping, carrying hose and carrying ladder.

The safety-service director was authorized to contract for the equipment at a recent meeting and bids were closed last Friday noon. Safety-Service Director E. O. Uncapher said the board of control, composed of himself and Mayor Harry L. Dowler, aided by Fire Chief Owen A. Sifritt, will consider the three bids received at a meeting tomorrow. Delivery date set is Nov. 30.

Marion Man Assigned To New Guard Company as Lieutenant

Louis D. Snively of 236 West Columbia street has been appointed a first lieutenant in the Ohio National Guard and assigned to Co. C here, it was announced today by Capt. Robert F. Melby, commanding officer.

The appointment brings to three the number of officers assigned to the new company, now in the process of formation. The other officer is First Lieutenant William Bogart.

Lt. Snively entered the National Guard in Marysville when it was federalized in Oct. 1940. After about a year of service as an enlisted man, he was commissioned at an infantry officers' training school at Fort Benning, Ga. He saw considerable combat in Italy until wounded by a mortar shell at Futa Pass, main Gothic line defense. Following this he was assigned to the engineers.

Valuable Souvenir

One of his souvenirs is a small notebook which he carried in his breast pocket and which contains a piece of shrapnel which stopped at the last page.

He is married and has one child. He is proprietor of the Arrow Sign Co. at 130 Court street.

Capt. Melby said two other applicants for commissions in the new company are now being considered by the National Guard Board in Columbus. He still is looking for two more infantry officers, either first or second lieutenants. Total officer complement of the company will be seven.

Several enlisted men have been signed up, but Capt. Melby said key men still are needed. Particularly desired are men who held non-com ratings in the Army during the war. Such men will have a good chance to come into the company with high ratings, Capt. Melby indicated. Others will have a good opportunity for advancement. Athletic facilities will be available.

Greenwood Cagers Take Revenge on St. Mary

Greenwood grade schoolers avenged the only loss they have suffered in Gra-Y basketball, handing St. Mary their first loss 16 to 14 at the Y Saturday afternoon. A fielder in the last second by Grubaugh provided the win.

In other Gra-Y games Mark Street downed Forest Lawn 16 to 5, Pearl lambated George Washington 27 to 9, Oak defeated Oakland 26 to 11, North Main outpointed Silver 28 to 15, and Olney forfeited to Glenwood.

Carl DeLong of North Main street turned in the afternoon's top scoring performance racking up 19 points.

Rabies Treatment Given Child After Cat Bite

Two-year-old Janis Ann Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Thompson of 201 Waterloo street, was severely bitten in the hand by a stray cat today at 11 a. m. in her home.

The little girl was petting the cat when it turned upon her and bit her three times in the hand, once almost through the flesh, her mother said. Mrs. Thompson said she pulled the cat away and put it out the door. It had been brought home earlier in the morning by an older daughter, Viola, 8.

Janis Ann was given treatment for rabies and tetanus at a physician's office.

you and Mr. Lausche when the papers were signed?

A. Just Mr. Lausche and I and the office girl.

Q. Who were the officers when the papers were signed?

A. Until that time there weren't any.

Q. Did Mr. Lausche know you were not secretary-treasurer of the club at that time?

Witness Weeps

At this point the witness wept and the hearing was recessed. When the session was resumed the question was not immediately repeated.

The witness said when she received a subpoena to attend today's hearing she called Charles Lausche and asked him what to do.

Charles Lausche told her, she said, that there was no need of getting an attorney and that it would not be necessary to testify at the hearing.

Questioned by a reporter at his office later, Lausche admitted aiding her in filing the application, but said he had no knowledge the woman had purchased the charter.

"She assured me it was a bona fide charter and I prepared an amendment to the charter changing its name. x x x She was supposed to have the lease for quarters for the club but the application was delayed so long in going through that she lost it.

Should Mail Permit Back

"I then told her she should mail the permit back to the permit department."

Lausche denied the woman's statement that he had advised her there was no need of getting an attorney or appearing at the hearing.

"I told her she should appear if she wanted to protect the charter and to get an attorney," he said. "She told me, however, the club didn't want to spend the money for an attorney."

Earlier, at today's hearing two permits were revoked by the board and a liquor inspector testified he filled out questionnaires to permit seekers without making inspections.

The agent, Charles D. Schlesinger, testified in the case of the Cleveland Theatrical association. The club's permit was revoked by the board along with that of the Juanita Outing club.

Schlesinger told the board he filled out a questionnaire on the club's physical property from information supplied by James M. McCaffery Jr., former city councilman and listed on records as president of the association, on Jan. 9 of this year.

The questionnaire accompanied an application for a permit, he said.

The agent declared under questioning that he had been ordered by Charles Bringman, then agent in charge of the Cleveland office, to take down the information without checking it by an actual visit to the association quarters.

He testified that Bringman told him to "take the information down and later we'll send another inspector to make a physical inspection."

Charles Schnurr, assistant attorney general in charge of the hearing, asked him if it wasn't wrong to fill out the report without making a check.

The witness again said he had been acting under orders, but when the question was repeated, replied:

"I guess so."

Schnurr again asked the question and Schlesinger said, "Yes."

Prices High at Duroc Hog Sale in Kenton

Special to The Star

KENTON, Feb. 24—The state Duroc sale held in Kenton Friday netted the owners of 62 hogs, $8,962.50, according to the sale clerk, Willis Wilcox, president of the Hardin County Duroc association.

Highest priced gilt in the sale was purchased from Martin Katter and Son of Wapakoneta for $550 by Wilbur McCormick of Hamilton. Katter is state president of the association. Average price paid for the 62 hogs sold was $144.55.

It was announced at the sale that the association intends to hold a boar and gilt sale at the Hardin county fair next September. Ten of the 62 gilts were purchased by Hardin county buyers.

Former Georgia Governor To Speak at Delaware

FRESH BLOOD A MUST FOR FREE ENERGY

Do you feel like you are tied to a dog every time you try to do something? If so, don't let a low blood count hold you down when you may release vibrant energy to every muscle, fibre, cell.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up the blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloat and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges through your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better. Have a healthy color glow in your skin—first clean fill out below and bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN BUNDESEN, M.D.

If Baby Has Sudden Pain

When a baby or small child has a sudden attack of pain in the abdomen, Mother should not delay in calling the doctor. He will not hesitate about coming because he knows that many of the conditions producing such pain require immediate treatment in order to forestall much more serious conditions.

In quite young infants one cause for such pain is what is known as pyloric stenosis, a condition in which there is an overgrowth of the muscle between the stomach and the first part of the intestines. In such instances the baby does not gain weight, is constipated and vomits forcibly. The usual treatment for this condition is an operation although some cases can be relieved by the use of certain drugs such as atropine and phenobarbital.

Another cause for such attacks, according to Dr. Robert Rutherford of England is intussusception, in which there is telescoping of one part of the bowel onto another part. In this condition the baby may pass a bloody stool. There may be vomiting but usually no fever. Often, the physician can feel a sausage-shaped tumor or swelling within the abdomen. Once a diagnosis has been made the usual treatment consists of immediate operation and replacing of the bowel in normal position.

Acute appendicitis is a fairly common condition and thus is frequently responsible for abdominal pain in children. In such instances there is not only pain in the abdomen, often located in the right lower part, but also vomiting, fever and rapid pulse rate. The number of white cells in the blood is usually increased.

In girl babies especially, a condition known as pneumococcal peritonitis may occur and produce severe abdominal pain accompanied by fever. In this disorder there is inflammation of the lining membrane of the cavity of the abdomen with pneumococcus germs. The muscles in the right lower part of the abdomen are often tender and rigid. Treatment of this condition with penicillin often will bring about a cure.

In the early stages of liver infections as well as in rheumatic fever and typhoid fever, severe abdominal pain may develop. Other causes are hernia or rupture which has become obstructed, twisting of the testes and inflammation of the lymph glands located within the abdomen. Once the cause is determined the doctor will decide on the proper treatment.

There Is a Hallmark In Funeral Service . . .

Like the hallmark that the early silversmiths used to distinguish their workmanship, there is an indication of value in funeral service that is equally dependable.

When one funeral director is called to serve repeatedly in the same family, or its immediate connections, it is evidence that both his services and charges have proved satisfactory.

The management of the Hughes Funeral Home gives much in personal service and attention to every family that entrusts funeral arrangements to this organization. That and our modest charges may be two reasons why we have been called to serve again and again in many family groups.

Everybody's Fight

THE continuing discussion of labor law reform by the public at large, as distinct from discussion by politicians, union executives and spokesmen for management groups, is bringing a key fact into sharp focus.

This is the fact that the public, being neither for nor against either side, has one fundamental requirement for the behavior of both sides—that it shall cease to be of a kind that inconveniences the public itself.

Charles Luckman, president of Lever Brothers Co., recently expressed this in an address to the Newspaper Advertising Executives' Association. He declared that there had been too much talk about the rights and privileges of the labor unions and management, but not enough talk about their obligations.

"No society," he said, "should allow itself to be disrupted by incessant civil war between such powerful groups as labor and management. It is my belief that the present struggle between labor and management is a luxury so costly in terms of the welfare of the people that not even our own rich country can afford its support much longer."

Well-reasoned observations like this should remind spokesmen for both sides in the labor-management issue that they are not engaged in a private fight. They exist by public sufferance. If the people's patience runs out, both will lose. Mr. Luckman says it like this: "This country does not belong to labor. It does not belong to management. It belongs to the people. They have not deeded it to us for a private battleground."

The people have waited a long time for management and labor to get along better. The New Deal tried to eliminate friction by bestowing arbitrary power on arbitrary men. It didn't work. It didn't work when arbitrary power used to belong to the other side. It now is the people's turn to try to induce harmony through moderation. If either management or labor should be shortsighted enough to resist, both will have to share the consequences.

Higher Education Is Higher

GOVERNOR HERBERT'S recommendation for increased charges to students at state-supported universities, to help carry the higher cost of higher education, also would remove some of the competitive disadvantage under which private institutions must operate.

During the war and for several years to come, nearly all schools have had and expect to have all the students they can accommodate, but for the long pull it is going to be necessary for private colleges and universities to compete with state institutions for students.

The private institutions obtain most of their money from interest on endowments. What they collect in fees must make up the difference between endowment income and operating costs. As endowment income has decreased, with the decline in interest rate, fees have tended to rise.

At the same time, state-supported education at the college level, financed almost entirely by public taxation, has been able to improve its competitive position by continuing to charge fees which were ridiculously low even when they were established, more than a decade ago in some cases.

Either the state must take steps to correct some of the disparity between fees charged in state educational institutions, or be prepared to shoulder the whole burden of higher education eventually, as financially-weak schools are driven to the wall. No one wants this to happen, least of all the educators themselves, who realize that private colleges and universities are equipped to do a job that never can be done properly under the inevitable restrictions that go with public education.

Well, Flip My Lid

A ST. LOUIS manufacturer of women's hats seems to have worked up a pretty good racket based on the assumption that women will wear anything on their heads provided it is presented under the right auspices and a good stiff price is charged for it.

This hatmaker, named Rodney, whips up little creations which get across a message to the observer. Each hat is made to order and in the cutest little letters and numbers imaginable advertises the wearer's name, her telephone number, or whether she's married, engaged, single or just looking around. The telephone number one is the most popular number. Prices: $39.50 up.

Rodney says the women aren't at all bashful about suggesting motifs for the hats and sometimes have to be dissuaded from flying a message which might not be in the best of taste.

If the message-bearing hat becomes popular, Rodney is going to receive an order from a male customer. It will be for a rakish black Homburg with the word "NUTS" appliqued on in the most cunning magenta letters you ever saw.

News Behind the News

By PAUL MALLON

Failure To Produce Coal Laid to Socialist Regime.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 — The obvious Socialist government of Britain has been trying in many ways to escape responsibility for the fuel famine of its great coal producing nation. It blames the weather, which has been abnormally stormy and cold, preventing the railroads from functioning for a brief period. Its group of mine workers, however, has looked beyond the weather for a cause to explain the anomaly of a coal nation being unable to keep itself warm and its men at work. The union, in a meeting, has formally blamed the former bosses of the mines, the owners from whom the government seized the properties. That kind of excuse might do well enough for last winter or earlier winters when the former owners ran the properties. But now the government has taken over. So not only the conservatives, like Mr. Churchill, but the frozen man in the street are both inclined to blame the current owners, to charge the labor government not only with lack of foresight in failing to build proper stocks at important centers, but with utter failure to do its coal producing job.

In such a political melee the reports from Britain seem to avoid a genuine objective explanation of the astonishing failure. Not a word can I find anywhere tracing the actual production of the mines since the government started preparing to take them over. The London Times publishes some figures which may shed a slight ray of light on this a mixed basic matter. It says the daily average of workings in a period at the height of the bad weather crisis was 44,000 tons from certain key producing districts as compared with 46,000 tons average for 12 weeks in the fall. So in the stress of aroused national pressure, the increments can be considered to be 2,000 tons a day less than in a normal pre-crisis period. Under utmost acceleration, the government is still not loading as much coal as it was when it was coasting along in the fall, and blindly laying the groundwork for just such a crisis as has occurred.

Situation Worse Now

The government, it is clear, was not producing enough coal then or now.

Perhaps the truthful reason for this failure lies in some significant newer items, which did not even appear in this country, and were buried in the British press before the bad weather accentuated a deteriorating coal producing situation. In January, the Yorkshire main colliery (employing 2,000 men) was shut down by an unofficial strike called by the miners because some men had been transferred from one part of the colliery to another—no greater reason than that. Simultaneously 1,100 men struck at the Shercburn Hill colliery in a wage dispute, cutting production 1,000 tons a day. On the very same single day which I picked at random in a British newspaper, 1,200 miners at Tredegar collieries were being urged not to strike the following Monday by the government's regional coal board.

These facts do not comprise an ex post facto excuse for political propaganda purposes, but indisputable evidence as to the real reason why Britain has suffered.

The facts are not illogical or surprising. Genuine objective economists have long contended that Democratic Socialism could not produce enough to sustain itself. Churchill, in his unsuccessful election campaign said the Union Socialist government would have to enslave the workers and the nation before it could require its own followers to produce enough to sustain the country. The unions laughed at the great wartime prime minister for such a suggestion. Yet now the Socialists are proving his point. Not only in coal, which is a basic British product but in overseas trade, which has been called the British lifeline. Exports of the United Kingdom last year were only 70 per cent in volume of what they were in 1938, although the financial value was one and a half times greater than in 1938.

King in Africa

The king has gone to South Africa, where ('tis said) the British Empire owns sufficient raw materials to make itself a wealthy world power and commonwealth. The king will find the South African wealth, is like British coal, still in the ground. Britain itself may have great natural wealth of raw material in the ground at home, but, having destroyed private initiative, which was generated by the profits system, cannot find means through socialism to extricate itself from a poverty in coal.

Some observers say Britain will try now to save itself from its socialist predicament by going further to the left. A government of the unions will next enslave its own union workers, they say; rob the people of their liberty, outlaw strikes and make the miners work—thus taking the stupid unnatural way out, which Hitler and Stalin took.

I do not think this is possible. People cannot possibly be so stupid as to stick their heads further into the noose of a system which cannot produce anything, cannot make its own people work, is utterly lost itself. Rather I believe that man learns best by experience, and out of the current lesson the British will learn they cannot operate without a profit initiative. Why not even Communism was crazy enough to go further to the left when its Socialistic efforts failed in Russia ten or more years ago. Instead it restored the profits initiative to the small farmers and dealers—it restored a part of capitalism. The reason Russia has not succeeded in producing anything superior in its big industries is that it did not restore capitalism to them.

Just Another Noble Experiment?

A Chicago judge appalled at the increasing divorce rate, threatens jail sentences for meddling in-laws.

That'll keep more couples together than the housing shortage.

Not only should fear of prosecution serve to silence meddlers, but a miffed missus can't very well go home to mamma if the old lady is in the clink.

Meddling, which has broken up more homes than joint checking accounts, is a favorite in-law sport.

From this fact has come the adage that a prophet is not without honor save in the midst of his wife's relatives.

That's why the idea is a good one even though it will doubtless be appealed to a higher court, many citizens being of the opinion that the Fifth Freedom is the right to meddle.

And, until such time as the supreme court rules otherwise, I'll go along on the theory that meddling is covered by several statutes, including the one on inciting to rebellion.

"To the Young Physician"

THE many thousands of experienced physicians who have returned from military service to practice in civil life are an "alert, well-trained and energetic" group, The Journal of the American Medical Association says in an editorial.

Entitled "A Tribute To The Young Physician," the editorial says:

"Since demobilization, many thousands of experienced physicians have returned from military service to practice in civil life. Remaining in the service to care for the sick and wounded in the peacetime army and in the armies of occupation in Germany and Japan are mostly recent graduates in medicine, many of whom received their professional training under the army specialized training program. The Deputy Surgeon General of the Army, Brig. Gen. Raymond W. Bliss, who recently returned from an inspection of medical installations in the European theater, has reported on the overall excellence of the service provided by these young physicians in Germany, France and Italy. General Bliss pointed out that during the war the medical corps was more of a cross section of mature American medicine. Today he said the cross section is of recent graduates who have completed their internships and varying degrees of medical and surgical residencies.

"These young physicians," he said, "are alert, well trained energetic, careful of their examinations of patients and thoroughly interested in their work. Patient care is on a high level and compares favorably with the highest standards of American medical practice. Commanding generals of headquarters, without exception, expressed their appreciation of the quality of the medical officers in their commands. These encouraging words are a well merited tribute to the young physicians now serving this country; they are a tribute also to those who evolved our system of medical education and who maintain its standards."

TIMES CHANGE in railroad financing as in trains—The DeWitt Clinton, left, New York Central's first locomotive, compares with a modern streamliner as sharply as today's stock acquisitions differ from historic battles for financial control.

By SAUL PETT

NEW YORK—Whether it's a beachhead or a pincers that Robert R. Young 49 now holds on the New York Central Railroad, Wall Street historians agree on one thing—he's in fast company.

Young's Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad recently bought 49 per cent of Central's stock. At first this was reported to mean Young had won actual control of the second largest passenger line in the country.

Then a Young associate denied this but said the group might try to acquire control later. To Wall Streeters this presaged a knockdown fight, the kind in which women and children scurry for shelter, for the Central was born and bred in furious battle.

Young's group became the biggest known stockholder with 315,400 shares. Harold S. Vanderbilt, chairman of Central's board, owns about 60,000 shares. Of Vanderbilt, Young said in an interview: "In this business, he's a mere child."

Such talk would have been fighting words to the board chairman's great grandfather, Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt, who put together the Central system as it's known today and did it after some of the roughest, rawest financial brawls in history.

Start of NYC

Ten small railroads had been consolidated as the New York Central in 1853. A few years later, the old commodore came onto the scene. Having railroads from Albany to New York City, he wanted control of the Central, which ran from Albany to Buffalo.

The Central fought him off until one mid-winter Vanderbilt suddenly broke the link between his lines and the Central at the Albany bridge, refusing to handle any passenger or freight transfers. New York-bound travelers had to walk across the frozen river to make connections.

ROBERT R. YOUNG

The public howled and the state legislature howled. At an investigation, the commodore calmly said: "I was not there, gentlemen. I was at home playing whist, and I never allow anything to interfere with me when I'm playing whist."

Vanderbilt then began to indulge his dream of stretching a rail system all the way to Chicago. But he ran head-on into the Erie Railroad and Jay Gould and Jim Fisk.

Tried for Erie

Vanderbilt tried desperately to buy control of the Erie. It was like pouring gold into a bottomless well. The more Erie shares he bought, the more Erie stock appeared on the market. He plunged in to the tune of $5,000,000, but Fisk and Gould had a stock-printing machine which seemed inexhaustible.

The commodore got a court injunction against the printing of more Erie stock. Fisk and Gould printed more, anyway. Vanderbilt got a coupon order for their arrest. Fisk and Gould hastily packed—about $6,000,000 in greenbacks into valises—and skipped town.

Across the Hudson, in a Jersey City hotel, they set up an armed camp surrounded by railroad detectives and city police.

Blandly, Fisk issued a statement: "The commodore owns the streets, the railroads and most of the steamships . . . As ambitious young men, we saw no chance for us there . . . So we came over here to grow up with the country . . . Yes, tell Mr. Greeley, we're sorry now that we didn't take his advice sooner—about going west."

Commodore Loses

Gould and Fisk went to Albany, hoping to get the legislature to legalize their stock maneuvers. Vanderbilt's men showed up, too. Politics was never more profitable. It was said that one vote brought as much as $70,000.

Fisk and Gould finally won the battle of Albany, but later agreed to return $4,500,000 to the commodore, which he insisted had been stolen from him via the printing press.

Eventually, though, the Central fulfilled the old commodore's dream. Between 1873 and 1875, he and his son, William, added railroads in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois to their properties and thus linked New York and Chicago by a single system.

Against this background, Young's quiet approach shows how far finance and railroading have traveled. Acquisition of a block of stock big enough to arouse talk of control without the aid of printing presses, may not be "mere child's play, as the financier implies, but apparently it still calls for an ambitious young man.

Charge Account on the "Katy"

("The Katy" Railroad announces that it will sell transportation by charge accounts. It will deliver tickets to your home and bill you for everything later, including meals." — News Item.)

Upon the "Katy" I will ride—
I needn't put the cash aside;
It's fun to travel choo-choo-choo—
And simply give an I. O. U.—
To see the plains and mountains high
And say, "I'll pay you bye-and-bye"—
To round a curve and climb a hill,
And smile, "just put 'em on my bill."

II.

What joy the ten-fifteen to mount,
And do it on a charge account—
How nice to get the twelve-oh-three,
And know the road is trusting me! —
To know the "upper" and the climb
Are things that can be had "on time"—
That if a drawing room one seeks,
There'll be no call for weeps and weeks.

III.

Oh, boy, to speed across the land
Despite a lack of cash in hand!—
To flash by brook and creek and bluff,
And do it all "upon the cuff"
To see the rivers and the bays
Without a call for thirty days!—
To nod conductors all "begone!" . . .
I'll see you fellers later on!"

IV.

Oh, lead me to the diner where
No anger will the prices scare,
I'll buy no diner speck by speck,
For now, hooray, I'll sign a check!
I'll face the steward unafraid,
And greet those waiters undismayed,
For I will know the wondrous bliss
of saying "George, I'm charging this!"

V.

And should I want a little drink
No longer need I sit and think;
I'll up a highball now with joy
And murmur "bill me later, boy!"
One drawback only do I see
To taper down my ecstasy:
When porters bruise my hat and shave
May I say "Charge this" to them, too?

Can You Remember?

Horse-car fare . . . Five cents.
Haircut and shave . . . Twenty-five cents
Regular dinner . . . Thirty-five cents
Biggest glass of beer in town . . . Five cents
Two cocktails . . . Two cents.
Shoeshine . . . Five cents
Ball game . . . Twenty-five cents.
Movie . . . Ten cents
Three pounds of pork chops, with liver in the car . . . Thirty-five cents

Sulphur and Molasses

By TRUMAN TWILL

The first case of spring fever has been reported. The patient is responding to treatment and will be permitted to cross the street by himself if no further symptoms develop after a 24-hour waiting period.

Spring fever is caused by the blood becoming thick. It gets that way from too much turkey stuffing during the Thanksgiving weekend, overdoses of rich food at Christmas and sluggishness during January and the early part of February.

The important thing is to get the blood thinned out as quickly as possible after the first signs of spring fever have been noticed. This should be done in all cases where the suspect feels feverish because a cardinal whistled, for instance.

Or if he has come upon boys talking about playing marbles, it is wise to take the precautionary step of thinning the blood immediately. Also if there is an impulse to get moody about seeing little girls skipping rope, or to want to leaf through a seed catalog.

Steps should be taken promptly after inspecting fishing tackle, road maps, garden tools and baseball gloves and bats. It is best to be on the safe side after noticing that the windows look dirty in the bright sunshine, or that day dreams is beginning to sneak up on 6 p. m.

Care should be taken while reading about ballplayers poling line drives into centerfield at training camps, preparations for basketball tournaments and also in case it is noted that the buds on pussy willow trees are beginning to bud in an interesting condition.

It will be too late to thin the blood when the frogs begin to sing in the marshes and robins are tumbling over one another on the lawn. There is nothing that can be done about it when the forsythia blooms, or when it grows warm enough to sit on the back porch steps and whittle.

Conditions will be too far advanced for safety when the air begins to smell of warming earth and burgeoning shrubs. It will be too late to take a stitch in time when the crocuses come in sight, the spring rains start and the boys and girls begin to talk about spring vacation.

Thin the blood now. Dole out the sulphur and molasses. Quaff the sassafrass tea. Later, it will be too late. Who wants to mess with sulphur and molasses and sassafrass ten when June begins to rhyme with moon, and the fancy young turn with no thoughts turn lightly to love?

Who cares what condition the blood is in when it starts racing at the sight of a daffodil in a sheltered nook, or of a chalked inscription on the sidewalk—"Johnny Loves Agnes"? Where the thinning is to be done in 1947 had better be done right now, while there's nothing more important to think about.

A measure making permanent the two-cent gasoline tax, which yielded $15,000,000 last year, also was due on the house floor for an early vote, as the house taxation committee got set to recommend passage of the one-cent liquid fuel levy, another $15,000,000-a-year producer.

Committees in both houses prepared to tackle more controversial problems during the week, among them veterans bonuses, conservation, strip mining, bingo, portal-to-portal pay and reorganization of the state agriculture department.

So many changes were demanded at hearings on a bill to create a state department of natural resources that the senate conservation committee decided to instruct a sub-commitee Wednesday how the measure should be rewritten.

A house military affairs group will start hearings tomorrow on five plans to pay bonuses to veterans and two others for loans and pensions. Opponents of realty taxes to finance bonus programs will be heard by a senate subcommittee Wednesday.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM NEFF

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Neff of two and one-half miles northwest of Martel was celebrated Sunday with a family dinner at noon and open house in the afternoon and evening. The couple received between 150 and 200 callers throughout the day.

Present for the dinner with the celebrants were their three daughters and families. The table, decorated in gold and white, was centered with a large three-tiered cake trimmed with white rosebuds and a large "50" in gold on the top. Gold candles in crystal holders completed the decorations.

For the celebration, Mrs. Neff wore an aqua blue dress with black accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations which was presented to her in the afternoon by her great-granddaughter, Miss Judy Ann Clayton of Caledonia. Ice cream in a cone shape with the top in gold, cake and coffee was served with the daughters assisting. Mr. and Mrs. Neff also received a large number of congratulatory cards, flowers and gifts.

Yesterday's celebration was held in the home in which Mr. and Mrs. Neff went to housekeeping 50 years ago. He still is engaged in farming and also does his own carpenter work on the farm. A member of the Marion county health board, he has served on that board for 25 years. He also served as a township trusfee for three years.

Present at the dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Neff were the daughters, Mrs. Perry Foos of Caledonia, Mrs. Chester Galleher of Mt. Gilead and Mrs. Zenith Waldbauer of Martel, and families, four grandchildren, Mrs. Edward Clayton of Caledonia, John Foos of Marion, and Don and Peggy Sue Galleher of Mt. Gilead, and the great-granddaughter.

Other guests included Mr Neff's niece, Mrs. Laura Neff White of Ridgefield Park, N. J., a sister and brother of Mrs. Neff, Mrs. Wylie Jackson of Worthington and H. W. Underwood of Caledonia, the only living sister of Mr. Neff, Mrs. George Doffee of Caledonia, and other friends and relatives from Marion, Springfield, Cleveland, Lorain, Dayton, Columbus, Bucyrus, Galion and Mt. Gilead.

ALLIES MOP UP NAZI PLOTTERS

Arrests of German Germ-War Conspirators Continue in 2 Zones.

By The Associated Press

BERLIN, Feb 24—American and British authorities arrested scores of Germans during the night in unearthing a reported subversive Nazi plot to restore German armed might to "lead the nations of Europe against Russia."

The Nazi captives, including high ranking storm troop officers, were said to have a secret bacteriological weapon.

A British announcement said the sweep was progressing smoothly," although snow and ice on roads handicapped trucking supplies.

Armed U. S. and British military police reported questioning the hundreds arrested, seeking information that would lead to many others in a group overlooked or underrated before the swift raids of Saturday and Sunday struck the first blow dedicated to a new war against Germany.

Headquarters in British Zone

American officials said headquarters of the subversive group apparently was in the British zone.

There was very close liaison between the leaders in the British zone and the 20 high Nazis seized in American territory," one U. S. officer commented.

Those seized in the American zone were arrested at their homes, were found to possess false documents. Some used false names. The American officer said "we will have to break them down fully before we can think" of trying them. All are loyal to the death penalty as pioneers.

United States and British soldiers and intelligence men, striking throughout their occupation zones despite a snowstorm and icy roads yesterday seized once-high officers of the old SS (elite guard), SA (storm troops), Hitler Youth, German intelligence and other similar agencies in the biggest such movement since the war—the first to cover two zones.

Claim Germ Weapon

A British senior intelligence officer at Herford said the movement claimed possession of a secret bacteriological weapon ready for use.

Other offices declared they had not learned for sure whether the group had such a weapon. Col. Jans Emmann, one-time officer of the German bacteriological warfare division, was captured in the British zone.

The British said the movement stretched into the Russian and French zones and authorities there were being kept posted.

They reported the underground wanted to restore German militarism and Nazi dictatorship to [illegible] Europe against Russia.

MILLION BRITISH WORKERS RETURN

By The Associated Press

LONDON, Feb 24—A million workers returned to reopened plants in the midlands today on this coldest day of the winter, which gave no notice that the critical coal shortage had been relieved.

Another 1,000,000 remained idle. Plants were reopened in only eight of the 35 counties which the labor government said shut down two weeks ago.

A sea coup for clerks out London and large areas of England, delaying coal shipments and putting railway trains on the short-haul and waiting for supplies.

Moreton-in-the-Marsh in the Cotswolds of southern England reported a night temperature of two degrees below zero, lowest in the British Isles in 29 years and about 34 degrees below normal. London had a 14 degree minimum, coldest since February 1929. Forecasters said the cold wave would continue several days.

The ministry of fuel and power called for a ten per cent reduction in coal consumption by gas companies and warned domestic users of further cuts in service, probably equalling the five-point restrictions on the use of domestic electricity.

Gov. Herbert Gives Crawford Co. Talk

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, Feb. 24—Governor Thomas J Herbert, in an address before approximately 300 persons gathered at the high school auditorium in Sulphur Springs Saturday night for a delayed Lincoln Day banquet, urged a hold-the-line policy for state expenditures.

The occasion was Governor Herbert's first visit to Crawford county since he became governor. The banquet was sponsored by the Crawford County Republican Women's club and Mrs. Martha Wheelcraft of Galion, club chairman and Eighth district committeewoman, was in charge.

Lewis Girton of Galion sang a solo and directed group singing.

ARMY BEGINS RESCUE OF 11 DOWNED FLIERS

By The Associated Press

LADD FIELD, FAIRBANKS, Alaska, Feb 24—Eleven army air force fliers huddled today on the barren, icy reaches of the northwestern Greenland ice-cap as rescue missions from two parts of the world converged in a giant-scale operation for their evacuation.

None of the 11 men, members of the B-29 photographic reconnaissance superfortress "Kee Bird" which crashed Friday, was believed injured.

Three transports and a troop-carrying glider winged their way across northern Canada from Ladd field to establish an operational base at Thule, Greenland, 200 miles south of the crash scene.

At New York, Maj Gen. William H. Tunner, commanding general of the Atlantic division of the Air Transport Command, took preliminary steps for a rescue by helicopter or by dog team and alerted all TAC aircraft in Newfoundland, Labador and Greenland to stand ready to aid.

Capt. Donald A. Shaw, a specialist in Arctic rescue work, was flown from New York to Goose Bay, Labrador. There the ATC has dog teams and equipment by which sled and dogs can be dropped by parachutes if it is necessary to "muss" the trapped men out.

A coast guard helicopter was packed in an ATC plane and dispatched to Gander, Newfoundland, to await further orders. Another plane carrying replacement parts for the helicopter and additional coast guard operators stood by at Westover Field, Mass., to support the operation if a helicopter rescue were attempted.

A reconnaissance flight by a third ATC plane, which late yesterday established radio contact with the marooned men, was to determine what means of rescue would be used the ATC said. The plane returned last night to Songre Strom Fjord, bleak weather reporting station on the west coast of Greenland.

900 HEAR TALK BY EVANGELIST

Largest Attendance Mark at Auditorium Reached Sunday Night.

More than 900 attended the Dr Joseph P. Rice evangelistic meeting Sunday night in The Star auditorium, largest number of any service since opening of the campaign last Tuesday night. At a children's meeting in Trinity Baptist church Saturday afternoon, 175 were present. Saturday night's service drew an attendance of over 500 and 273 were counted at a service Sunday afternoon. There will be no service tonight, then tomorrow night's service will start the second week of the meetings. It will be observed as Sunday school night, and a set of books by Dr. Rice will be given each school having 50 per cent of total enrollment present, it was announced.

Persons from other towns were present at each of the weekend services, and out-of-town pastors present included Rev. L. D. Parson of LaRue, Rev. Charles Hoffman of Mansfield, Rev. Robert Pratt of Wharton, Rev. Ostrander of Prospect, Rev. Robert Hughes of Bucyrus, and Rev. Thomas of Bucyrus.

Children's Service Program

At the children's service Saturday afternoon, Dr. C. E. Hershey had charge of the song service and Rev. J. B. Holloway led in prayer. Dr. Rice gave a talk to the children and there was a flannelgraph lesson given. When an invitation was made several boys and girls responded to "give their hearts to Christ."

Saturday night Dr. Hershey presided for the meeting and Rev. Robert Hughes of Bucyrus led in prayer. The pianists were Mrs. Wesley Chatfield of Marion and Miss Miller from Lima. The sermon was "The Scarlet Sin and the RoadsThat Lead to It." The scripture was the fourteenth verse of the twentieth chapter of Exodus. There were eight at the altar during this service. Dr. Rice said that "God hates the scarlet sin. It is mentioned in the ten commandments. God gives the death penalty for the scarlet sin like murder. It is the only legitimate reason for divorce. It brings terrible results in the body. America is robbed by the scarlet sin. Some of the roads that lead to it are the moving picture show, dance and petting and necking. Preachers today are sensitive about preaching about adultery but it is in the Bible."

Pianists for Sunday afternoon were Mrs. Chatfield and Mrs. J. W. Baker. At the service Sunday afternoon, the subject was "The Man Who Made Money His God, Who Called the Wicked His Brethren, Whose Religion Was a Joke to His In-Laws and Let His Town Go to Hell." Rev. R. A. Maugans had charge of the song service and sang "When They Ring Those Golden Bells for You and Me." A member of the Rice party, Dr. Harrison Pierce of Santa Barbara, Calif., had charge of the offering.

Sunday night, Dr Rice preached on "What the Bible Says About Hell." Rev. Maugans led in prayer and the pianists were Mrs Wesley Chatfield and Robert Dellinger. Dr Clarke led a song service.

Twenty responded to the altar call.

LOSING TENDENCIES RULE STOCKS TODAY

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Feb. 24—Losing tendencies ruled in today's stock market although selling pressure was negligible and few weak spots appeared.

Trends slipped after a fairly active opening. Steels and motors led the retreat which slowed appreciably by midday.

Among resistant issues were Norfolk and Western, American Telephone, Southern Railway, Texas Co., Standard Oil (NJ), Johns-Manville, Du Pont and Boeing.

Backward were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, General Motors, U. S. Rubber, Sears Roebuck, American Airlines, Eastman Kodak, Schenley, Santa Fe, Great Northern, International Nickel, Air Reduction, Caterpillar Tractor and Consolidated Edison.

Founder's Day Marked By Olney Ave. P.-T.A.

In celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the Parent-Teachers Association, a Founder's day program was given at a meeting of the Olney Avenue P.-T. A. Thursday afternoon at the school. Group singing of the national anthem, followed by the pledge to the flag opened the meeting. The topic, "Faith of Our Founders," was given by Mrs. Fred Keck, and Miss Florence Betz conducted the devotions, followed by prayer.

Officers were elected for the new school term as follows: Mrs Melvin Upton, president; Mrs. Charles Jenkins, first vice president; Mrs. James O'Dowd, second vice president; Mrs. Clifford Knudson, secretary; Mrs. LeRoy Thrush, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Wintermute, council respresentative; and Mrs. Vaughn Greer, alternate.

Past presidents who were guests were Mrs. H. E. Dilsaver, Mrs. J. G Lytle, Mrs Harmon Peart and Mrs P C Kyle. A report on the city council meeting was given by Mrs. P. B McDonald, president, and contributions were made to the Ohio P. T.A. and also the Red Cross. The attendance award was won by the fourth grade. A scrap book of the P.-T. A activities was on display following the meeting.

BODY FOUND DEC. 26 IDENTIFIED AS GI

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 24 — Deputy sheriffs today began tracing the actions of a former Cosnocton, O., marine whose frozen and beaten body was removed from nearby Alum creek last Dec. 26. Identification was not made until yesterday.

Sheriff Jacob E. Sandusky said the federal bureau of investigation in Washington reported the victim's fingerprints were those of Walter R. Middlemus, 25, a farmhand and former marine private.

Prior to the fingerprint check, the sheriff said brothers of Middlemus identified shoes, a jacket and a sweatshirt found on the body and traced to the family by a laundry mark.

The brothers said Middlemus worked on a farm near Johnstown when they last saw him in November and the sheriff reported the victim had not been at the farm after Dec. 6.

An autopsy following recovery of the body from the creek disclosed a skull injury inflicted before the body was placed in the water, the sheriff said. When efforts at identification failed, the man was buried Jan. 10 near Westerville.

Fire in Auto Caused By Anti-Freeze Leak

City firemen answered a call on East Center street to extinguish a fire in the motor of a car owned by E. W. Farley of 151 Homer street Saturday at 5:30 p. m. Anti-freeze leaking on the motor started the blaze, causing the battery to blow up, it was reported. Loss was estimated at $50.

Soot in a chimney at the home of Z. Z. Corcoran of 467 Summit street burned out Sunday at 9 p. m. No damage was reported.

MIAMI GEM THIEVES HAVE BUSY 24 HOURS

By The Associated Press

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb 24—Scarcely had they started work on the season's biggest jewel robbery here—the theft of $73,000 in cash and gems from the Beachcomber night club—when city detectives were faced with another case involving the loss of "a fortune" in valuables by a Texas couple.

Three masked gunmen held up the night club at 3 a. m. Sunday, forcing co-owner Jack Cassleman and three employes to open the safe containing the money and jewels. Detective Sgt. C. W. Pierce said the loot included $48,000 in diamonds and platinum jewelry belonging to entertainer Sophie Tucker.

Last night Detectives Sam Fredericks and R. P. Thompson reported the second theft of the day, the burglary of a closet safe of valuables belonging to Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Cornell of Kent, Tex. The Cornells were the guests of H. Lee Zeigler.

Cornell declined to estimate the loss other than to say it would run into "many, many thousands of dollars."

Ohio Junior College Program Advocated

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Feb 24—The Ohio Trends of the Public Schools will ask the present session of the legislature to enable local and county school boards to establish junior colleges.

After a public meeting here yesterday, the organization's executive and advisory boards agreed to propose a bill which would permit school boards to start public junior colleges in districts where a majority of the voters approved of the plan.

Dr Jesse P Bogue executive secretary of the American Association of Junior Colleges, with headquarters in Washington, D C., was the main speaker. Bogue said Ohio ranked 41st among the states in development of junior colleges and that rural youth were among "the groups most adversely affected by the lack" of such schools.

Robbery Suspect, Shot At Columbus, Held

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 24—A 20-year-old robbery suspect, who was shot in the leg by police Saturday, was removed from Grant hospital to city jail for questioning today in connection with two downtown holdups here last week.

The suspect registered as Billy Davisson of Clarksburg, W. Va. Detective George Baker said he had a .32 caliber revolver and $189 in cash in his possession when he was arrested.

The youth suffered a flesh wound in the left leg when he tried to run away early Saturday, Baker said. Cornered, he crowled under a truck.

The detective said the youth was suspected of robbing Alex Parkerson, a grill manager, of about $150 at a bar Thursday and of obtaining an undetermined amount of cash from Ben Elliott, Western Union office night manager, in a holdup Friday night.

There are about 55,000,000 males of all ages in the U. S. population.

Little America Garrison Eats Last Meal at Antarctic Po

BY LEE VAN ATTA
Representing The Combined American Press

ON BOARD THE U.S.S. MOUNT OLYMPUS, Feb 25—(Delayed)—The final meal at historic Little America was to be served this noon, after which all equipment being left behind will be stored underground and personnel will be loaded aboard the icebreaker Burton Island for evacuation.

Rear Admirals Richard E. Byrd and Richard H. Cruzen radioed shortly before noon Antarctic time that Little America would definitely be abandoned "within twelve hours".

Captain R. S. Quackenbush declared that both admirals were particularly concerned over fast-freezing ice conditions to the west of Wilkes.

Also causing the expedition leaders some anxiety were alarming reports that the great Sea ice pack is consolidating and steadily spreading south.

Nearly 200 air operations, headed by Byrd, will be carried out on the anticipated two-day trip through the ice.

At the same time Byrd and Cruzen made their decision to cancel operations of the western group. Captain Charles A. Dufek's western task group which, too, had been forced to turn back after having penetrated more than half way around the Antarctic continent.

Reports from the U. S. S. Pennock, western flagship, told of warnings of narrow Antarctic leads were visible everywhere and that flying weather was deteriorating steadily.

The task group reversed course last night. The Currituck, accompanied by the destroyers Henderson, Ogden, and Cassin, is expected for Sydney, Australia, port of the Gallery islands. From there they the group will leave for the states.

Of the three task forces comprising this greatest of all Antarctic expeditions, only Captain Richard Dufek's eastern unit continued to operate in the heart of the Antarctic.

Dufek's last messages said the ships were still planning to make one reconnaissance flight over the Weddell Sea area.

9 FLIERS DIE AFTER ATTEMPTED RESCUE

By The Associated Press

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Feb. 24—Nine coast Guardsmen were dead and two severely injured today, victims of a flying boat's crash on a merry mission near Tijuana, Mex. A stricken fisherman they were aiding was killed also.

The 19 lives were crushed out as the two-engine PBM Mariner, returning from a 1,470-mile round trip to sea, struck near the top of a 700-foot cliff mesa late Saturday night. It bounced to the top scattering bodies and flaming wreckage over a wide area.

Before crashing, the plane had circled San Diego Bay, unable to land. Its last radio message at 1:35 a. m. said it was "letting down off the Coronado islands in a dense fog."

Names of the coast guard were not disclosed pending notification of relatives, but the pilot and copilot — previously identified when the plane started the mission Saturday morning—were:

Lt. Amerino Miles, 27, of San Diego, a native of Grove City, Pa., and aviation pilot first class Fabian J. Kersell, 27.

ROLLINS COLLEGE HONORS STANDARD OIL EXECUTIVE

W. T. Holliday Gets Honorary Doctor of Laws Degree.

WINTER PARK, Fla., Feb 24—Rollins college today conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws on W. T. Holliday, president, Standard Oil Co. of Ohio.

He received the award at the Rollins mid-winter convocation at which honorary degrees were also bestowed on Dr. V. K. Wellington Koo, (LH.D.), Chinese ambassador to the U. S., William O. Douglas, (LL.D), associate justice, U. S. Supreme court, James B. Carey (L.L.D.), secretary-treasurer CIO, and several others.

In conferring the degree, Dr. Hamilton Holt, president of Rollins college, said:

"Wallace Trevor Holliday, captain of industry, humanitarian, not only because you are the type of citizen who conducts his business with ability, humanity and for the public good, but because you are serving your day and generation in many good causes and especially because you are one of the first among business leaders who have caught the vision of the way to bring peace on earth in an atomic age, Rollins College confers upon you the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws."

Telephone facilities installed in the U. S. War department's Pentagon building in Washington would serve a city of 125,000 people.

Even a Magician Can't Help

Magicians can perform wonderful tricks with rabbits and silk hats, but even the best of them can't do anything about producing scarce telephone equipment by magic. The materials we so desperately need to expand our service just don't materialize from thin air. Production is slow and delivery dates are still uncertain, so we can only continue to do as we have done—provide service as quickly and as fairly as possible.

Social Affairs

THE First Presbyterian church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Esther Guthery, daughter of Mrs. Frederick E. Guthery of 450 Delaware avenue and the late Mr. Guthery, and Robert B. Mautz, son of Mrs. A. E. Mautz of 360 Lafayette street and the late Mr. Mautz, Saturday evening. The many friends of the couple and their families gathered at the church shortly after 8 o'clock to see them married. Officiating for the ceremony at 8:30 o'clock was the pastor, Rev. Howard L. Olewiler.

Myriads of candles in the choir loft and surrounding the altar, and a border of huckleberry foliage with white tulips, stocks and gladioli, extending the full length of the chancel, formed the setting for the ceremony, and family pews were marked with carnations and satin ribbon bows. As the guests were being seated Mrs. Harry T. Williams, organist, played a program of music including "Clair de Lune," Debussy, "Intermezzo," Provost, "Wedding Bells," Truette, "The Lord's Prayer," Malotte, "Liebestraum," Liszt, "Serenade," Tosselli, "Iche Liebe Dich," Grieg, "Estrellita," Ponce, "I Love You Truly," Bond, and the traditional wedding marches.

Miss Guthery, given in marriage by her brother, Howard F. Guthery, wore a beautiful gown of white faille. A Clifford original, the gown was a period design, button trimmed below the waistline in the back, with leg o' mutton sleeves ending in points, and the square neckline was outlined in a wide band of accordion pleating. The pleating was repeated in the skirt, the band completely encircling the long cathedral train. A crown of Brussells lace held her veil of sheer white bridal illusion. Her bridal bouquet, centered with a white cream-throated orchid, was of stephanotis and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Milton S. Pohler of Kansas City, Mo., was the matron of honor, Miss Dorothy Adams of LaCanada, Calif., was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard A. Parke III of Hattiesburg, Miss., Mrs. Thomas H. Clark Jr., sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Betty Brown. All wore identical models of turquoise blue lace and net. Over their dresses, made with low cut basques and very full skirts, they wore lace jackets with long tight sleeves and high round necklines. Mrs. Pohler and Miss Adams carried bouquets of fuchsia shaded shattered carnations and stephanotis with matching tulle streamers, and the bridesmaids' bouquets were shattered carnations in shell pink hues. All wore long gloves in a fuchsia shade and coronets of shattered carnations in their hair.

James A. Mautz of York, Pa., brother of the bridegroom, was his best man, and ushers were Philip E. Guthery, brother of the bride, who was the head usher, Robert P. Koenig of Indianapolis, Ind., Charles D. Harmon, Virgil F. Dye and Rayl B. Conyers.

Lighting the candles were Miss Louise Guthery and Miss Ruth Turner. Miss Guthery wore a gown in a chartreuse shade and Miss Turner was in blue. They wore long fuchsia colored gloves and clusters of lighter shattered carnations in their hair.

A reception followed at Hotel Harding. Flowers on the mezzanine were large vases of white stocks and in the presidential suite woodwardia palms and tall baskets filled with white tulips, stocks and greenery marked the receiving line. Mrs. Guthery wore a black crepe costume with bands of gold and silver beads outlining the neck. The bridegroom's mother was costumed in a dress of chartreuse jersey, with a trimming of soft creamy lace and pearls on the bodice. Both mothers wore orchids in a light pink shade.

An arrangement of white tulips, snapdragons and greenery formed the table centerpiece and white spring flowers encircled the tiered bridal cake. Another table held the punch bowl, which was surrounded with greenery. Presiding at the tables were Mrs. Howard F. Guthery, Mrs. Philip E. Guthery of Marion, Mrs. May Baker of Tiffin and Mrs. Charles Adams of LaCanada, Calif. Assisting were Mrs. William S. Guthery of LaRue, Mrs. Russell A. Jack of Rochester, N. Y., Miss Dora Hardy of Cleveland, Miss Virginia Drake of Bay Village, Miss Esther Joan Guthery of Columbus, Mrs. William Isaly of Fort Wayne, Ind., Mrs. LaMar Faught of Athens, Mrs. Robert Cripps, Mrs. Leonard Young, Mrs. Robert Willey, Mrs. Harry Lazear, Mrs. David Isaly, Mrs. Carl Knirk, Mrs. Henry A. Mickley, Mrs. Virgil Dye, Mrs. James Barker and Mrs. Robert Klatt.

In the ballroom, where Gene Beecher and his orchestra of Cleveland played for dancing, the lights were hung with huckleberry foliage and white satin ribbon bows.

Mr. Mautz and his bride will motor through the south on their wedding trip. For traveling Mrs. Mautz wore a light wool dress of Rockwood tan with a bolero jacket of Matara seal with a wide belt of matching fur, brown lizard accessories and a brown flower trimmed milan hat.

The bride attended Lycee Victor Luruy school, Paris, France and Pomona college at Claremont, Calif. and was graduated from Penn Hall School for Girls at Chambersburg, Pa., and Northwestern university at Evanston, Ill. Her sorority is Chi Omega. Mr. Mautz was graduated from Harding High school, Miami university at Oxford, Yale University School of Law and is a member of Beta Theta Pi, Phi Beta Kappa, Omicron Delta Kappa and Corby court at Yale. He is administrative officer of the legal division office of military government for Germany, (U. S.) and is stationed in Berlin where he and his bride will live. Mr. Mautz expects to return to Berlin shortly after the middle of March and Mrs. Mautz will join him there in April.

Mrs. Guthery was hostess for the rehearsal dinner Friday evening at Hotel Harding.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mrs. Charles Adams of LaCanada, Calif., Charles Adams of Jackson, Mich., Mrs. Harriet Neidlinger of Evanston, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Russell A. Jack of Rochester, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. William Isaly of Fort Wayne, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. George H. Drake, Miss Virginia Drake and Guthery Drake of Bay Village, O.; Mr. and Mrs. L. Edwin Smart, Miss Esther Smart and Mr. and Mrs. F. Lewis Harrison, Jr., of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Erwin J. Hastings of Dayton; Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Hastings and Mr. and Mrs. William S. Guthery of LaRue; Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeWitt of Akron; Mrs. May Baker of Tiffin; Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Milks of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Dale F. Harrah of Toledo; Mr. and Mrs. James L. Grissinger and James A. Grissinger of Worthington; Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Purdy of Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. Melville D. Hayes of Wilmington, O.; Miss Dora Hardy and Miss Mary Hardy of Cleveland; Dr. and Mrs. John Knox, Guy McCullough and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Ewing of Findlay; Major and Mrs. C. LaMar Faught of Athens; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rudin of Mt. Vernon; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gatewood of Claridon; Miss Emma Biebighauser of Galion.

MRS. ROBERT B. MAUTZ

Mrs. Rolland Augenstein of 626 Windsor street was hostess for a meeting of the Fortnightly Study club Thursday evening. For the program Mrs. John Morgan gave a paper based on "Mrs. Appleyard's Kitchen" by Louise Kent and the program chairman. Mrs. Augenstein conducted a quiz on "Women in History." An award was won by Mrs. Basil Morgan. A meeting March 6 will be in the form of a Chinese program with Mrs. John Morgan as hostess at the Federation Home.

Five new members were initiated into the Circum sorority Frdiay evening at the home of Miss Roberta Yazel of 912 Uncapher avenue. They are Misses Margene Heisel, Louise Lamb, Shirley Stanley, Jane Street and JoAnn Eddy. Miss Patsy Duckworth presided and names of secret sisters were drawn. A committee appointed to compose a song for the sorority includes Miss Elfrieda Rech, Miss Heisel, Miss Stanley and Miss Joyce Roberts. A social hour was held. The next meeting will be in the home of Miss Rech.

Mrs. Carl Werley Jr. entertained the D-8 club Thursday evening at her home at 328 Chestnut street. Bridge was played with high honors going to Mrs. Lloyd Williams, second to Mrs. J. H. Ryan, and the consolation award to Mrs. James Brown Jr. Miss Elizebath Ballenger was a guest. The hostess was assisted in serving by Miss Ballenger.

Mrs. A. C. Deffendoll of Galion entertained with a supper recently at her home for the pleasure of her niece, Marilyn Jean Deffendoll, who was celebrating her tenth birthday anniversary. The table was centered with a large birthday cake decorated in pink and white. Guests included Clarence Deffendoll and Miss Maxine Haycook of Winchester, Ohio.

The Big Island Hustlers met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Donald Johnson, with Mrs. Gertrude Granger, president, in charge. Mrs. Virginia Sherer was in charge of the program which consisted of musical numbers and a monologue. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Everett of near Green Camp entertained Wednesday evening, Feb. 19, with a party for the pleasure of their daughter, Beverly Ann, who was celebrating her second birthday anniversary. The occasion also marked the birthdays of Mrs. Robert Everett, whose was Feb. 17, and Mrs. Everett's mother, Mrs. Henry Krock of LaRue, whose anniversary was Feb. 18. A large decorated cake centered the table from which refreshments were served.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Goken of Edison, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bending of Mt. Gilead, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Everett of Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sloat of near Green Camp, Mrs. Wallace McNeil and son Mickey of Green Camp, Mrs. George Everett of New Bloomington, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krock of LaRue, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Hickman of Moral, and John Krock and Miss Ruth Sallfan of Kenton.

Miss Ruth Auman and Miss Claudia Paxton of Orchard street were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Sleeth of Newark.

20 CHURCHES TAKE PART IN PRAYER DAY

Annual Service Held at Trinity Baptist Church.

Approximately 150 persons representing at least 20 churches of Marion were present at the World Day of Prayer service held in Trinity Baptist church Friday afternoon. The service was in charge of the Marion Council of Church Women, branch of the Marion County Council of Churches, and a cooperating unit of the national United Council of Church Women. Theme of the service was "Make Level in the Desert a Highway for Our God." Mrs. H. V. Falor was leader. Mrs. Paul Knauss is president of the Marion Council of Church Women.

A chorus group from Harding High school, directed by L. G. Jones, opened the service with two numbers, "Prayer Perfect" and "Softly and Tenderly," and Mrs. Falor gave the opening sentence, followed by summary of World Day Prayer as held in various countries, by Mrs. R. G. Augenstein, and responsive reading, Mrs. Eugene Moore was soloist in responsive hymn singing and Mrs. Martha Vermillion led in a "confession of mirages." A hymn of confession was sung by Mrs. Hope Line Thomas accompanied by Gene Decker. In response to a call for voluntary petitions, prayers were offered by Mrs. Perry Strine, Mrs. C. W. Shearer and Mrs. John Ruth, followed by the Lord's prayer by the congregation, the entire group kneeling in prayer of confession.

Four special projects promoted by the United Council of Church Women, were presented, Mrs. Leonard Thompson, migrant work; Mrs. John Dietsch, religious work directors for the government's American Indian schools; Mrs. Melvin Upton, Christian literature for children outside of the United States; and Mrs. Leo Keller, union Christian colleges. Mrs. J. B. Holloway presided for the offering taken for the projects. Youth work was represented by Miss Margaret Huffman. Another period of responsive reading and intercessory prayer was followed by solos by Mrs. Robert Broadback. Mrs. Frances Ford sang the closing hymn, "In the Secret of His Presence," accompanied by Mrs. E. C. Klutey. Rev. J. B. Holloway, pastor of Trinity church, pronounced benediction.

Captain Is Hors D'Oeuvre For Hungry Tiger

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Writer

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 24—Roman Proske has come as close as a man can to ... how it feels to be eaten.

The tanned little wild animal ... has been scratched, bitten ... led at least once a year ... the 33 years he has been ... ing with "the big cats," and ... few occasions he has been ... impromptu ... de resis- ... for an op- ... tiger ... mistook him ... dinner.

Hal Boyle

At least I ... been the ... exception," said ... Vienna-born ... man, who now ... operates the only ... tiger farm in ... America.

Proske said there is less sen- ... than you might expect ... a tiger begins chewing on ... Preliminary shock dulls the ...

"You just feel helpless like a ... mouse," he said.

The closest he ever came to ... a full course dinner for one ... temperamental pets was in ... Budapest many years ago. He told me the story as we sat in a little garden by his cottage house trailer, pausing now and then to call over and calm one of his dozen yowling tigers.

Often Suddenly Explodes

Proske is a quiet slim man who suddenly explodes in electric Austrian gestures and accents, and makes his adventures sound funny rather than tragic. Listening to him as he acted out the drama I couldn't tell at times whether his right hip was disappearing down the tiger's gullet, or whether he had sunk his own teeth in the beast's flank—something Proske is quite capable of.

One moment in the Budapest circus ring Proske had been the master of eight tigers. One seized him by the hip in his jaws—and Proske instantly became a morsel. The tiger ran around the ring with the other seven chasing him for tidbits.

As the tiger streaked out of the arena into the tunnel leading to its own cage, a quick-witted assistant closed the gate behind him trapping the other tigers in the ring.

"Hitting him with my fists was like trying to knock out an elephant," said Proske, then my head banged against the tunnel wall knocking me unconscious.

"The tiger ran with me to the farthest cage and laid me down in front of the bars. It was then he began to eat.

"But the clowns and midgets and the rest of the circus people poked at him with sticks and clubs and yelled, 'Don't eat Proske!' They were my friends—those people.

"Then the circus owner, annoyed because all the customers were leaving, walked up to the cage. He was a quick cool man.

"He said, 'What is all this noise?' In Europe a circus owner is a very great man. The clowns and midgets stood still and said very respectfully, 'a tiger is eating Proske, Herr Direktor.'

"With no noise to startle him, the tiger again began eating on me. This was what the direktor wanted, for the tiger's bent head was against the bars. He stepped up with his revolver, held it directly against the animal's head and emptied it.

Leaps Straight Into Air

"The tiger leaped straight into the air. As he fell he caught my hip and part of his paw in his jaw. He was dead, but they had to pry his teeth open to get me out."

Proske spent six months in a hospital, and immediately went back to training "my cats." He is a bachelor, doesn't drink or smoke, and in a very matter-of-fact way is resigned to being killed eventually by one of the tigers he has given his existence to.

"They have taught me so much more than I could ever teach them," he said with genuine humility. "They have been my life, and they will be my death.

"When you get a certain age"—he is 48—"you don't hear so well. You don't move so quickly. It is then one day the cat gets you."

Proske made a comic grimace as he mocked the tiger that will get him.

"He will wrinkle his face and say, 'Old Proske—hah! Nothing but bone and skin!'"

A tiger growled from a nearby cage just then, and Proske slapped his small light riding crop in the dust and laughed and laughed.

GROUPS TO DISCUSS JOINT HEALTH BOARD

Meeting To Be Held at C. of C. Tonight.

Between 20 and 25 representatives from city and county civic and service organizations are expected to attend a public meeting tonight at 7:45 o'clock in the Marion Chamber of Commerce offices on North State street to consider the possibilities of organizing a single health district in the Marion area.

Chamber officials said today several civic and service organizations have passed resolutions favoring the district health plan and will bring those resolutions to the meeting. The meeting is open to all persons of the city and county interested in the health program.

Formation of a single health district would replace the present city and county health boards with a district board of health.

W. E. Goodwin, chairman of the Chamber's health sub-committee, will lead tonight's discussion.

COURT NEWS

Marriage Licenses

Marriage licenses have been issued in probate court to John Wyatt, laborer, and Ada Marie Goodman, both of Marion; Francis Gaskins, laborer, and Viola Foust, both of Marion.

Robins Old Stuff, Butterfly Is News

Reports of robins spotted in Marion in the dead of winter have been so common recently that the frost-bitten birds are becoming an accepted part of winter fauna around here.

But Arnold Lawrence of the Dixie Fruit Market at 161 North Main street Saturday came up with a new note on mid-February animal life.

He found a butterfly, slightly seedy, but still capable of flexing its wings, in a bunch of bananas which he was unloading from his truck at the North Main street market. He had just driven the truck here from Florida, where he had loaded the bananas directly from a ship from South America.

Whether his little friend was from south of the border or was a Florida native, Lawrence didn't know, but he was inclined to think he had hitch-hiked a ride on a truck going in the wrong direction.

CALEDONIA TRIMS CLARIDON 35 TO 32 IN COUNTY FINALS

Pleasant Beats Morral 49-35 To Clinch Runner-Up Position

A new king of Marion county basketball was crowned at New Bloomington Saturday night as Coach Thurman Wright's tall fighting band of Caledonia cagers staved off a belated rally by the defending champion Claridon quintet and won the county tournament finals 35 to 32. Both teams will go to Westerville for the class B sectional tourney.

The Pleasant Tornado spent after trailing a keyed-up Morral team all the way in the second period, pulled ahead in the second and ran third place going with a trip to Westerville 49 to 35. Drawings for the 32-team event in Columbus at 6 o'clock at Westerville will be held tonight at the end of the tourney.

The record attending the finals Saturday night began to gather around the New Bloomington gym at 12:30 p. m. Tickets were sold at 3 and at 4 every seat was filled. The overflow crowd lined around the court and packed the aisles and when all those spectators were admitted they filled the [illegible] to a playing-play present of the two hard contests through a loud speaker. Robert A. [illegible] of Caledonia officiated. They entertained themselves before the contests by listening to portable radios and by playing cards.

Claridon Jumps Off

In the championship joust Claridon got off to a 2 to 0 lead through a foul shot by Gene Ruth and a follow-up toss by Nolan Belknap before Eugene Fleming cracked the ice for the Donians with a follow-up shot. Jim Ruth then scored for Claridon and Kenneth Comstock went under for two points and tossed in a charity to tie the score.

A foul toss by Rodgers gave Donia a lead but it was quickly nullified by a free throw by Belknap. Caledonia took the lead which they never relinquished on a Scotland line throw by Fleming at 7 to 6 with three minutes to go in the first period. A bucket and another free toss by Fleming sent the first quarter score to 10 to 6.

In the second stanza the Donians got their high powered offense to working and sent the score to 24 to 9 at the half, after Fleming was removed midway in the period because of four fouls. Three baskets by Comstock, a foul and two-pointer by Freet and three fouls by Clark, Fleming's replacement, was the ammunition used. Claridon was held to a goal and a foul shot by Gene Ruth in this period.

Fleming Comes Back

Fleming came back into the ball game to start the second half, but committed his fifth personal in the first 15 seconds and had to leave the contest for good. The new champs continued in the early part of the period and ran the score to 31 to 12 about the middle of the stanza before the loss of Fleming began to tell as they began to lose the rebounds. At the same time Freet was on the bench with four personals. A pressing defense by Claridon plus the loss of the rebounds with Freet and Fleming out, gave the defending champs a que and Claridon went out to make a game of the otherwise runaway. In this period a foul by Irey, a goal and two free throws by Belknap, a goal and a charity by Gene Ruth gave Claridon eight points and a total of 17. A basket and two fouls by Freet and a two-pointer and three fouls by Comstock gave the winners nine points and a total of 33 at the end of the period.

Donia Stalls in Last

With the Donians trying desperately to play a possession game and Claridon pressing hard, Donia tallied only two points in the final hectic stanza. Trailing by 14 points Claridon was not yet whipped. The former champs began to press the Caledonia ball handlers and three baskets and a foul by G Ruth plus two double counters and a foul by J. Ruth along with a tip-in by Irey brought the score within three points of the winners.

Freet, back in the game in the last period, made Donia's only points on a field goal. The elongated Donian fouled out with two minutes to go along with Belknap, Pickett and Irey of Claridon. Caledonia desperately hung on to the ball and took the sphere out of bounds when fouled to protect the lead.

When the contest was over, it was found that although Caledonia had outclassed the defenders in the earlier part of the contest, before losing Fleming and Freet, the game had been won at the foul line. Caledonia made 11 baskets to 12 by Claridon, but converted on 13 foul attempts while Claridon cashed in on only 8.

Mayers Bottled Up

In the preliminary tilt Morral had Charles Mayers, the Pleasant flash, bottled up, but the clever youngster recognized the fact and fed the ball to his teammates who got the necessary points. Outstanding offensively for Porter's winners was Dawson with 14 points who switched to the pivot when Millisor replaced Dutt. Millisor sank five goals mostly from far out on the floor. It was chiefly the accurate long shooting of the Pleasant lads that made the big difference as Coach Norman Weston's team matched the Townshippers in the other phases of the contest.

Gorby kicked in with 13 points for Pleasant. Pete Merritt and McCumber led the losing cause with 11 points each. Merritt, who excels in play around the foul line where he is very effective in faking and shooting, played most of the game as a ball handler in the middle of the floor.

The seven boys on the All County team who took part in the contests—Mayers of Pleasant, Freet, Comstock and Fleming of the new champs, the Ruth boys of Claridon, and Merritt of Morral—gave the crowd a demonstration of why the county mentors had selected them on the honor team.

County Superintendent D. T. Mills presented the trophies at the end of activities. In addition to the winner and runnerup trophies to Caledonia and Claridon these same two quintets also received like jewelry for finishing in a tie for the top spot in league play.

Pleasant and Morral received the balls used in the tourney. The Pleasant reserves also were given permanent possession of the Jay-Vee trophy. It was the third time the Pleasant seconds had won the cup. It also had been won twice by LaRue and once by New Bloomington.

LIMA MARKSMAN WINS OHIO RIFLE CHAMPIONSHIP

Galion, Mansfield, Ashland Represented on Winning State Team.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 24—A 29-year-old Lima electric worker, Paul J. Spry, today is the state rifle champion.

Spry dethroned Roy Flowers of Cleveland in the final matches of the Ohio small bore tournament at Olentangy village yesterday. Coming from behind, the Lima shooter tied Flowers in the last relay of the Columbus trophy event with a total of 1054. He took the state title and the midwest trophy by outranking the defending champ from the standing position.

Flowers had won the gallery championship in 1942, 1945 and 1946.

Firing its annual pistol match against Quebec and Ontario teams, an Ohio team, composed of the 20 leaders in the Tewes trophy match, scored 3,973 out of a possible 4,000. Members of the Ohio team were:

Anna Lu Barke, Chillicothe; William Kelly, Akron; his wife Dorothea Kelly; DeWitt Erk, Columbus; Gene Kaber, Cleveland; Carroll Greer, Barberton; Emanuel Kessler, Canton; Luther Earnhardt, Springfield; Kenneth Foster and John Smalley of Good Hope; Orville Jones, Cincinnati; Fleet Corwin, Mansfield; R. F. Carrothers, New Philadelphia; Mrs. W. R. Rineheart, Galion; Richard Smith, Canton; Robert Rullman, Cincinnati; Jean Brewbaker, Akron and William Schaad, Ashland; George Richey, Columbus, and Karl Leiner, Tiffin.

In Crestline Hospital

CRESTLINE — Admissions to Emergency hospital were: Mrs. Donald McMichael of Crestline and Miss Lea Muntis of near Crestline. Births: a son Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Byron Stoth of Crestline.

High Scorer

KENT, O., Feb. 24—Lanky Fred Klaisner, 6'4" Kent State university freshman, established a new all-time single-season scoring record for KSU basketball when his 14 points against Wooster Thursday made his season's total 244.

Klaisner's new mark shatters the previous record of 238 points held by teammate Bill Sudeck, of Alliance. Sudeck's record performance was made last year. The diminutive, 5'9" junior still holds the individual game scoring record by virtue of his 34 points against Kenyon last season.

WISCONSIN, ILLINOIS IN BIG NINE CHASE

Battle Tonight for Key Positions in Title Race.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Feb. 24 — Wisconsin, wavering in the stretch run after some fancy early footing, and second-place Illinois, furiously pressing the pace-setting Badgers, tonight invade Purdue and Michigan respectively for key battles in the waning Big Nine basketball race.

A third conference game this evening takes Ohio State to Indiana, which has a mathematical chance of tieing Wisconsin for the title before the season closes a week from tonight.

Wisconsin, upset by Ohio State, 57-56, in its home finale Saturday night, now has eight victories and two defeats, a game ahead of Illinois which took its seventh win against three setbacks with thrilling 52-51 decision over Northwestern before a near record crowd of 22,543 at Chicago stadium.

If the Badgers turn back Purdue (4-5) tonight at LaFayette, they will clinch at least a share of the title with only a visit to Minnesota Saturday night remaining on their card.

Illinois has an equally rugged assignment at Ann Arbor where Michigan's Wolverines (5-5) have lost only once in two seasons.

Illinois, with a possibility of winning the title with a 9-3 record if Wisconsin loses both to Purdue and Minnesota for a final 8-3 listing, closes at Indiana Saturday night.

Two of the seven conference games booked this week are for consolation honors, those being Ohio State vs Northwestern Friday night, and Purdue at Iowa Saturday night. The Michigan at Ohio State finale next Monday night also falls into the same category.

Iowa's 68-46 drubbing of Indiana at Iowa City Saturday night was a blow to the Hoosiers' hopes of doing better than tie for the title.

Michigan's superb defense job against Minnesota, 55-25, weakened Gopher Jim McIntyre's bid for individual scoring honors.

In non-conference play Saturday night, Purdue lost to Butler, 56 to 48, in an overtime.

Rebekahs at Galion Initiate Candidates

Special to The Star

GALION, Feb. 24 — With Miss Ruth Sipes presiding as noble grand, initiatory work was conducted for several candidates at the regular meeting of Cassandra Rebekah lodge Friday night. The lodge meeting was followed with a social session and lunch which were planned by Mrs. Frank Beck, Mrs. Pearl Beck and Mrs. Elmer Berry.

* * *

When Mrs. George Cronenwett opened her home Friday evening, to members of the Pythian Sisters Sewing Circle, she was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mayme Baldinger.

* * *

The monthly meeting of the Junior Luther league was held at Peace Lutheran parish house Thursday evening. Devotions were led by Dennis Beach and the study topic was presented by Lloyd W. Babb. During the business session, Rev. Philip E. Auer gave a report on the Memorial Plaque which will be purchased in the near future. Two new members, Jane Place and Jane Mitchell, were welcomed. The program feature was a piano solo played by Joyce Baxter.

GALION, Feb. 24—Mr. and Mrs. John F. Douglas who were married in Chicago last Wednesday at 3:30 p. m. in theparsonage of a First Methodist church, are making their home in Crestline.

Rev. C. H. Draper officiated at the ceremony in the presence of Dr. and Mrs. J. Fred Smith of Chicago. Dr. Smith was the bridegroom's commander while both were in service in the United States Navy during the war.

The bride is the former Miss LaDonna Kime, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kime of Galion. She was graduated from Galion High school and has been employed in the office of the Galion Metallic Vault Co.

Mr. Douglas, who is manager of the Cut-Rate drug store in Crestline, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Douglas of Galion. He also was graduated from Galion High school.

Six Ohio High School Cage Gladiators Still Unbeaten

By The Associated Press

Six Ohio high school basketball teams still are undefeated, although two of them—New Holland and Belmont—slithered by with just one point each to spare in winning the championship of Pickaway and Belmont counties respectively over the weekend.

New Holland ran its unbroken string to 22 when it disposed of Atlanta, 22 to 21, and Belmont put over victory 24 by a 47-46 decision over Summerton.

Approximately two-thirds of the Class B teams were eliminated in county tournaments from the scramble for the state championship.

Also riding high are Bentsville of Seneca county with 22 victories without defeat and Frazeysburg of Muskingum county with a record of 25 in a row.

2 Class A Teams

The other two undefeated teams are of the Class A variety, Upper Arlington winning its 12th and Bryan owning a string of 14. Bryan went into collegiate ranks competition last week and lost to Bowling Green Jay Vees.

Those six teams are the cream of the crop right now—but what will happen in the next four weeks is anyoody's guess. From now on it will be dangerous, for a defeat will mean the end of the season for the vanquished.

During the county tournaments of the two previous week (involving Class B teams only) a team could lose a game and still have a chance, for most of them were of the double-elimination variety.

One place where the double-loss worked out peculiarly was in Clark county. South Charleston had been sailing along in good style until Saturday when Enon put the kibosh on it, 47 to 30, necessitating another game, which will be played Monday. The winner will be the champ.

One To Be Decided

Another county title yet to be settled involves those two perennial rivals in Perry county—Corning and Glenford. Because Perry county has no site large enough for the tournament, the event is being held in Zanesville's auditorium. The schedule had to be worked around the Muskingum county affair and the finals were relegated to Monday.

The district and sectional tournaments will occupy the spotlight for the next two weeks—exempted villages and parochial schools joining the county elimination winners in the various class B eliminations. The Class A schools will swing into action at various points Tuesday.

Following selection of district champions on March 8, there will be 16 teams remaining in each class. This will be narrowed to four during the regional tournaments the weekend of March 13-14 and 15 and then the four survivors of each division will head for Columbus and the state finals on March 20-21 and 22.

Some Champions Listed

Among county champions were: Muskingum—Frazeysburg (undefeated in 24 games); Ashland—Perrysville; Licking—Alexandria; Richland—Lexington; Sandusky—Green Springs; Seneca—Bettsville (undefeated in 21 games); Crawford—Tiro; Marion—Lincolnview; Delaware—Sunbury; Franklin—Worthington; Pickaway—New Holland (undefeated in 23 games); Hardin—McGuffey; Madison—Plain City; Auglaize—Minster; Wyandot—Marseilles; Union—Broadway.

MARYSVILLE BEATS UPPER SANDUSKY

MARYSVILLE, Feb. 24—Marysville High school cagers finished their regular season Saturday night handing Upper Sandusky's Rams a 42-32 defeat to end the pre-tourney tilts with a record of ten wins and seven losses. "Jap" Schneiderer paced the Monarchs with 19 counters to run his season total to 182 points. Wilson broke even for the losing Northern Ohio league co-champs with an even dozen tallies.

O.W.U. Announces 47 Football Schedule

Special to The Star

DELAWARE, Feb. 24—A ten game 1947 football schedule, including one night game with Baldwin-Wallace at Berea, O., and another game at Winter Park, Fla., with Rollins college has been announced by George E. Gauthier, Ohio Wesleyan university director of athletics.

The Bishops are still without a football coach since Gauthier's resignation from that post recently after 26 years as head gridiron mentor. Gauthier's successor is expected to be named sometime before spring football practice begins in March.

The schedule:

Sept. 27—Albion, here; Oct. 4—Otterbein, here; Oct. 11—Baldwin-Wallace at Berea (night); Oct. 18—Case, here; Oct. 25—DePauw at Greencastle, Ind.; Nov. 1—Mt. Union, here; Nov. 8—Ohio university at Athens; Nov. 15—Denison, here; Nov. 22—Oberlin at Oberlin; Nov. 28—Rollins at Winter Park, Florida.

Funeral Directors Hold Bucyrus Session

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, Feb. 24—Funeral directors and embalmers from District two, Ohio Funeral Directors association were in Bucyrus Thursday for the quarterly meeting of the district, held at the Y.M.C.A.

Speaker was Walter M. Barnes, of Eaton, O., vice president of the association. Ervin S. Lutz of Bucyrus is president of the district group which includes Crawford, Marion, Morrow, Ashland and Richland counties. The next meeting will be held in Mansfield in May.

2 Little Indians

HARDING BOOSTER MEETING TONIGHT

Organizational Get-Together Scheduled at Y.M.C.A.

The Harding High school Boosters' club will hold an organizational dinner meeting at the Y. M. C. A. tonight at 6 p. m.

This club, activated by members John Pickerel and Dr. Richard L. Morgan, has been a silent supporter of the Harding athletic program for a number of months.

Over fifty reservations have been made during the past week for the dinner which will be the first official meeting of the club. Membership is about 60; however, it is expected that it will increase to over 1,000.

During the meeting, the aims and purposes of the club will be formulated and temporary officers appointed.

Constructive support of high school activities is the objective of the club. The acquisition of a reserved section of the Harding stadium for the members of the club during the next foootball season will be considered.

Later tonight, films will be shown of the 1946 football game in which Ohio State defeated Northwestern 39 to 27.

Morrow County Cage Trophies Presented

Special to The Star

IBERIA — County Supt. F. E. Honnold presented trophies to Marengo's basketball squad, coached by Leonard Walls, as a result of their winning both the county league title and tourney championship. The trophies were received by Gerald and Harold Davis, Marengo twins, a forward and guard, co-captains of the team.

Fry, captain of Johnsville's Reserves accepted the reserve trophy and a basketball for his team and

Marion Fives Prep for Starts In Delaware, Westerville Tilts

By GEORGE ROEST

Marion high school fives are grooming today for district tournaments which start tomorrow.

Drawings for the class A meet in Edwards gymnasium at Ohio Wesleyan university in Delaware were held Saturday with Harding drawing Columbus Central.

Drawings for the class B tournament at Otterbein college in Westerville in which St. Mary will play will be held there tonight. Coach Gene Fetter and Rev. Fr. William J. Spackerman will be present to represent the schools.

Also to be present are representatives of Caledonia, Claridon and Pleasant the county's three top outfits.

Harding will be active in the first round of play at Delaware and their game is slated to follow the Columbus East and Washington Court House match at 7:30. The approximate starting time is 8:45.

Harding in Upper Bracket

Harding is in the upper bracket of tournament listings with East and Newark being the seeded clubs in that bracket. They are expected to meet in the semi-finals March 5.

Upper Arlington and Columbus West have been seeded in the lower bracket and should meet in the semi-finals March 6. Newark and Upper Arlington are favored to meet in the finals March 8.

Harding is not expected to be in the running long. Provided they get by Central in the first round, they should eaten seeded East in the second.

They also are entering the first round as an underdog. Central, although not seeded, is one of the stronger Capital city fives and led that city's league until the last week of play.

Bohyer Is Optimistic

Harding mentor D. N. Bohyer when asked for a statement concerning his outfits chances refused to agree with observers who believe that his club with its record of four wins in 15 games will be easy pickings.

"We are," he said, "at the point where we may surprise a lot of the teams in this tournament."

He pointed out further that his club in almost upsetting Ashland gave an unexpected performance and had still not reached the degree of perfection he believes possible.

He also announced the ten players who will be carried to the meet. They are Jim Riley, Don Riddle, Don West, Hank Fa[illegible], Bud England, Jim Hill, Jim C[illegible], Bob Short, John Courtright, Dick Gherman. Dick Thom[illegible], Don Johnson, Dick Clark, and [illegible] Roseberry are listed as substitutes in case sickness or injury hits one of these ten. Jim Fogle is the manager who will accompany the team.

Johnsville Grabs 2nd Place in Morrow Meet

Special to The Star

IBERIA—Coach Preston Bur[illegible]graf's Johnsville cagers moved into possession of 2nd place in the final game of the 25th annual Morrow County basketball tourney Saturday night at the Iberia gym as they defeated the Cardington Pirates 48 to 29.

The Brother Johns' Bardon-Donnelson scored 4 goals and two charity markers apiece and Tischer's basket to grab the lead at the quarter 12 to 5 which they never relinquished. Maxwell and Yake were high scorers for the Pirates.

Rites Set for Harry K. Thaw, Figure in 1906 Murder Trial

EVELYN NESBIT THAW

HARRY K. THAW

By The Associated Press

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 24—The body of Harry K. Thaw, 76-year-old multi-millionaire whose turbulent life came to a peaceful close here Saturday night, started today to Pittsburgh for funeral rites and burial.

Thaw died of coronary thrombosis in the rented home where he had been living since last Nov. 1.

Russell Thaw

Thaw first gained prominence when he inherited a fortune estimated at $40,000,000 from his father, a railroad magnate, and reaped notoriety through his marriage to show girl Evelyn Nesbit and his subsequent shooting of Stanford White on June 25, 1906.

White, one of the nation's leading architects, was shot on the roof garden of the old Madison Square Garden, as a result of alleged relations between White and Miss Nesbit prior to her marriage to Thaw.

Two trials followed the slaying, and Thaw was declared insane. After spending some time in an asylum, he gained his freedom and remained in the news through breach of promise and damage suits, night club escapades and expensive parties.

His story romance with Miss Nesbit, his only wife, was so buried in the past that she was not even listed as a survivor. Neither was Russell K. Thaw, Miss Nesbit's son whose parentage he contested.

Sidney Werner, Thaw's attorney who arrived by plane Saturday night and made the announcement of his death, gave only two names as close survivors. They were Mrs. C. G. Whitney, a sister, of Milton, Mass., and Lawrence Thaw, a nephew, of Connecticut. No other address was given for the nephew.

In Atlantic City, where Miss Nesbit, now 61, resides, she was quoted as saying she had long since "forgotten and forgiven" all unpleasantness, but would not attend his funeral.

LOVE'S PATH

dom from responsibility, had been too much for me. I reflected guiltily. This telegram from Mary was like a sharp spur. I must get to work at once.

"Well?" my husband's anxious voice said.

"When you're through brooding over your sins, will you tell me—"

He never finished his question. The door knocker sounded imperatively, and I was at Dicky's side when he threw open the door.

"Surprise, surprise, darling!" Mary's matchless voice caroled, as she flung herself first into my arms, and then into those of her uncle. "Did you get my telegram?"

NO MORE AUDITIONS? SENOR, PLAYA YO, GONE CRAZY OR SOMETHING?
NO MORE AUDITIONS UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE! I'M THROUGH! I WANT THIS PLACE MADE TO LOOK LIKE THE PREMISES OF A SUCCESSFUL PLANTATION OWNER—WHO? ME!
THE PLANTATION MANAGER AT PLANTATION CAMOON NO.1: "TELEGRAPH ME THAT THE SEÑORITA COPPERHEAD WILL NEED HERE BY PRIVATE AIRPLANE! SHE DISMISSED ME FOR ALTERING HER ACCOUNTS!"
SEÑORITA CAMOON WILL PEER AT THE BOOKS OF HER NO.2 PLANTATION YES?
I THINK IT WOULD LOOK BEST IF HER NO.1 MANAGER WERE FOUND A SUICIDE BESIDE THE CHARRED LEDGERS OF THE COMPANY
—BUT A PARTIALLY BURNED TELEGRAM REVEALS OF HER COMING ADDRESSED TO HIM AND LYING AMONG THE OTHER ASHES!
AND I AS THE SYMPATHETIC OWNER OF THE ADJOINING LAND IN LOVE BY TO PAY MY LAST RESPECTS! IS IT HOT TOUCHING ZIP?

LOVE'S PERILOUS PATH

By ADELE GARRISON

I WAS trying to iron out some the paper

Not Another Minute

"Darling Auntie Madge," it began "I won't stay here another minute I positively won't I don't care what any crying doctor says I shall go stark, staring mad if I have to lie flat on my back and eat nourishing food another day Am coming to New York immediately if I can't get plane or Pullman, will travel top of freight cars, or hitch-hike Hope new play will be ready when I get there Don't tell Noel or his family They'd only get jittery Will surprise them Expect me when you see me All my love, Mary"

"I guess she's coming home all right," Mary's uncle commented

"I wonder when she'll get here, I said "She sent this yesterday, night letter"

"That must mean there's a cramp in her pocketbook," he said anxiously "Mary always sends straight wires, no matter what the expense But—Phil insisted on paying the sanitarium expenses, you know, and keeping the Lansfield apartment for Noel"

"Yes, I know, I said, for the generosity and thoughtfulness of Philip Veritzen, owner of the Lansfield is as well known to me as it is to Dicky He never has lent or given us any money, of course, but he has smoothed our paths in many other ways, notably in this post-war year of housing and hotel shortages

For the problems of "peace"—Dicky puts it in quotes—are terrific, and they have come to Dicky and me with the effect of rapid-fire explosions

Recovered from Injury

Dicky, fully recovered long ago from his injuries in the plane crash, returned from the aviation camp when the war ended, to find that he could rent no studio in the entire city, and had been compelled to do his magazine covers and illustrations out at the farmhouse where I was trying to write the new play for Mary But Dicky works best in the city, and I found it almost impossible to write and supervise the farm household at the same time.

There is no school near the farm for Faith, now of school age, and Junior and Roderick are in preparatory school My father was spending only occasional weekends at the farmhouse, living most of the time in his Greenwich Village hideaway

"He's the 'elder statesman' of the FBI" Dicky had said, commenting on my father's avalue to the government despite his added years

Suffered a Fall

Last, and worst of all, my mother-in-law had suffered a fall, months before, which had brought her to a city hospital, in which she was now convalescing.

We needed desperately to move to the city, and Philip Veritzen had solved our problem by arranging ample living quarters for Dicky, Faith and me on the floor below the top one reserved for the owner There was also a study with bath for me and Phil had transformed a small penthouse on the roof, which he always had kept for personal guests into a skylight studio with bath, for Dicky So, leaving Jim and Katie, our valued helpers for many years in charge of the farmhouse, we had moved into the Lansfield

The ease, the comfort, the free-

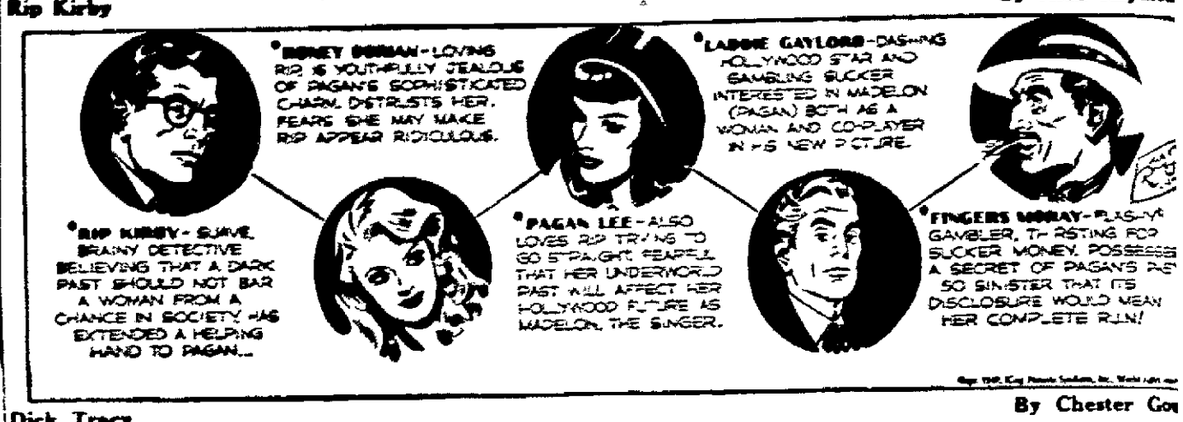
Rip Kirby



*RIP KIRBY—SUAVE, BRAINY DETECTIVE BELIEVING THAT A DARK PAST SHOULD NOT BAR A WOMAN FROM A CHANCE IN SOCIETY, HAS EXTENDED A HELPING HAND TO PAGAN...
*SIDNEY BRIMAN—LOVING RIP IS YOUTHFULLY JEALOUS OF PAGAN'S SOPHISTICATED CHARM, DISTRUSTS HER. FEARS SHE MAY MAKE RIP APPEAR RIDICULOUS.
*PAGAN LEE—ALSO LOVES RIP TRYING TO GO STRAIGHT, FEARFUL THAT HER UNDERWORLD PAST WILL AFFECT HER HOLLYWOOD FUTURE AS MADELON, THE SINGER.
*LADDIE GAYLORD—DASHING HOLLYWOOD STAR AND GAMBLING SUCKER INTERESTED IN MADELON (PAGAN) BOTH AS A WOMAN AND CO-PLAYER IN HIS NEW PICTURE.
*FINGERS MURRAY—FLASHY GAMBLER, TRYSTING FOR SUCKER MONEY, POSSESSES A SECRET OF PAGAN'S PAST SO SINISTER THAT ITS DISCLOSURE WOULD MEAN HER COMPLETE RUIN!

REPORTERS CLARK KENT AND LOIS LANE ATTEND A SPECIAL SESSION OF THE METROPOLIS CITY COUNCIL CALLED TO COMBAT JUVENILE DELINQUENCY.
THIS MEETING WOULD NEVER HAVE BEEN CALLED IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR OUR NEEDLING ARTICLES.
SH-HH! COUNCILMAN FENWAY IS SPEAKING!
GENTLEMEN, TO SOLVE THIS DISTRESSING PROBLEM, WE MUST CONSTRUCT MORE PLAYGROUNDS IN THE CITY'S SLUM SECTIONS.
NONSENSE!
TEARING DOWN TENEMENTS AND REPLACING THEM WITH PLAYGROUNDS WOULD BE A WASTEFUL SQUANDERING OF THE TAXPAYERS' MONEY. I AM UNALTERABLY OPPOSED TO IT.
I'D LIKE TO TELL THAT BIG WINDBAG A THING OR TWO!

LIASSA IS LIKING HIS STOOPER MAN. IF IS NO GOOD ETIQUETTE FOR HIM TO MAKING LOVE TO LIASSA IN HIS OUTSIDE CITIES, LIASSA NOT GO. SO IS INNECESSARY FOR LITTLE HOT-SHOT FELLER TO TEACHING ENGLISH WITH BOSTON ACCENT. SO NOW YOU GO... YES.
I'M HAPPY TO SAY IT'S NOT THAT SIMPLE. LUCKILY I HID HIDDEN A PART FROM EACH ENGINE OF THEIR AIRCRAFT. THEY WOULD FIND IT DIFFICULT TO FLY ME BACK TO CHINESE JURISDICTION.
NOW, I'LL STRIKE THIS BARGAIN—ALLOW ME TO GO FREE AND I'LL TELL YOU WHERE TO FIND THE PARTS. ALSO, YOU MAY KEEP MY DEAR ASSOCIATE BURMA TO TURN OVER TO THE AUTHORITIES AS EXHIBIT 'A' OF YOUR NOBLE INTENTIONS.
THAT'S VERY SELFISH OF YOU, TOO! UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES IT'S QUITE FORTUNATE THAT I TOOK PRECAUTION OF HIDING ON YOU WHILE YOU WERE MOVING THE ENGINE PARTS.
